Bay City Mystery Shot Imperils Foreign Consul

BULLET HITS WALL BESIDE MAN'S HEAD

Believe Gun Was Fired In Japanese Consulate's Office Across Street

HAD NO ENEMIES

Discharge of Gun Was Accidental in Opinion of San Francisco Police

BULLETIN

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—(UP)—A one shot, unofficial war between imperial Japan and the republic of Guatemala was ended today in the approved diplomatic fashion, with apologies.

"Hostilities," which opened unexpectedly when a bullet crossed Market street from the Japanese consulates and banged through a window of the Guatemalan consulate, were purely accidental, it developed.

They came about because an ancient revolver, found by a clerk who was cleaning some files, chose to function.

The bullet landed in the darkened office of Juan Anino, Guatemalan consul general, who was in an adjoining room. Two windows sum up the casualties.

Kanamo Wakasugi, Japanese consul general, said he will explain and apologize.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Police here today were mystified over the shot, apparently fired from the office of the Japanese consulate, that last night smashed the window of the Guatemalan consulate and narrowly missed Jan Anino, consular general of that country.

Anino was bending over some papers on his desk when the bullet ploughed into the wall directly above his head.

A hurried investigation led to the discovery of another bullet hole in the window of the Japanese consulate directly across the street. The fact that a person intending assassination would hardly fire through two glass windows left police to the belief the shot had been accidental.

As reconstructed by Detective Sergeant Michael Desmond, someone in the Japanese offices had by chance fired a weapon they were handling, and then terrified at the near tragedy they had caused, fled.

Kanamo Wakasugi, Japanese consular general, could not be reached at an early hour this morning.

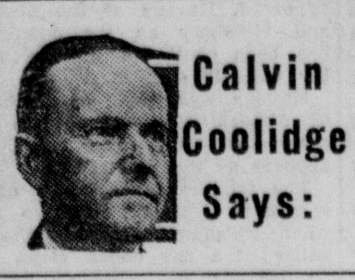

A janitor, in the Postal Telegraph building, where the shot was discharged, told police he had seen a man in the Japanese consulate a short time before the occurrence.

The glass windows of both offices were punctured.

Anino, a wealthy coffee importer and exporter, who was appointed to his present office last December, declared he had no enemies that he knew of and was at a loss to account for the shooting.

FLAPPER FANNY SAYS: REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

Some letter writers use such long words that you have to go to great lengths to read them.

Calvin Coolidge Says:

By CALVIN COOLIDGE
Former President of United States
NORTHAMPTON, MASS., Oct. 23.—The organizing ability of the people and the capacity for co-operation between public and private institutions is being most encouragingly displayed in the plans being made to relieve any possible distress and want during the coming winter. Cincinnati, Detroit, Indianapolis and New York are leading the way in private charity for giving relief work. This is properly recognized as a local responsibility for town, city and county administration. They are the government units to which is legally assigned the responsibility for relief under our system. But in the present case it is fitting that the state and national governments should contribute their counsel and assistance through voluntary and extra legal committees. The needs of humanity reach all our government organizations and all our people. No one is immune from responding to that call.

It cannot be repeated too often that the resources of the country are ample to meet all requirements. There is no occasion for any public panic. Such relief as is necessary will be forthcoming. But local governments and private charity should both be alert to organize at once to meet this fundamental obligation of society to all its members.

HUGE BUILDING PLAN FOR NAVY IS DECIDED ON

Fifteen Year Program Will Cost $750,000,000 Or More

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—(UP)—A 15-year navy building program to cost between $750,000,000 and $1,000,000,000, and providing the United States with a virtual London treaty fleet in every category except six-inch gun cruisers, has been decided upon by the navy general board.

The board was expected to submit its recommendations today to Secretary of Navy Adams who will turn it over to President Hoover.

Submission of the proposed future navy construction policy to Adams almost coincides with receipt in London of Japan's formal ratification of the London pact, signal for the treaty to become effective on the navies of all its ratifiers. England and the United States already have deposited their ratifications.

It was also decided to spread the whole construction program over a 15-year period so as not to have the new ships become obsolete at practically the same time, as would occur under a five or even 10-year program. Repeated demands by President Hoover for rigid economy in government expenditures also were said to have influenced the board's decision.

Two men killed in auto crash

MODESTO, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Burt Murray, 20, of the Paradise district, was killed and two other men were injured when an automobile struck a bean-threshing machine and automobile on a roadside near Hart last night.

The automobile was driven by John Eutcher, Modesto rancher. He brought the body of Murray and the injured men, Forrest Popp, 25, and O. Dorland, to a Modesto hospital. Popp was reported suffering from brain concussion.

The threshing machine crew had parked an automobile near their machine to make use of their headlights in making repairs.

Workers In Chest Drive Make Report

Gather at Luncheon Meet To Turn Over Pledges

BULLETIN

As Community Chest workers gathered at noon today in the Christian church they reported pledges to date totalling $11,288.50. This includes advance gifts of $6000. The pledges were itemized as follows: business, $7179.50; branch houses, $810; residential, $2224, and employees, $1075. The goal is $49,946.

WITH SAM HURWITZ presiding, and the Christian church women serving, the noon report meeting today marked an enthusiastic step in the Community Chest campaign. Workers flocked to the meeting, bringing their pledges already secured many of them accompanied by checks in full payment, as well as tales of citizens who failed to contribute.

"Let no one feel discouraged," said E. T. McFadden, president, today. "We are meeting with just about normal responses, and have no right to be worried if some people are out of step. The great mass of our citizens realize their obligations and are willing to share with others the service which we must give, as a civilized community. The success of our campaign will be assured when we see all the people who ought to be seen, and lay the facts before them."

Corporations May Aid
The fact that corporations need have no fear of legal complications in connection with their gifts to the Chest was stressed by Manager R. R. Miller, who is in receipt of a communication from New York City, carrying the opinion of Frederic R. Kellogg, a noted corporation attorney of that city.

As one of the country's outstanding authorities on corporation law, Kellogg was asked to examine recent decisions on corporation giving, and to publish his conclusions. He pointed out that the trend of judicial opinion is toward a broader and more liberal view of the part which a corporation may take in assuring the well-being of its employees and in maintaining high welfare standards in the communities in which they live. Recent court decision indicate that it is not only permissible for corporations to make such contributions, but that, if properly designated, these are deductible from income tax returns, as in the case of individuals.

Will Carry Through
With manifest determination to finish their work and fill the Chest, the workers scattered over the city today with renewed resolution to see all their prospects and get the results.

Plans are under way for carrying the appeal to many people who live outside the city limits, but who are being represented through the community welfare agencies in dealing with the needy, in helping the helpless, and in serving the youth of the community.

"Ranchers and others who are in the Santa Ana district, and who frequently have to depend on Santa Ana people for getting their work done, have a right to help maintain those who are able to find only seasonal employment, and the opportunity is to be presented to them, both from the standpoint of philanthropy and of good business," said McFadden.

Dog's Owner Held After Assault On Youth With Knife

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—(UP)—John Kataglan, 19-year-old high school student, was reported in a critical condition today from knife wounds inflicted by the woman owner of a dog he had run over with his automobile.

Joseph Grenada, his wife were held on charges of assault with a deadly weapon pending recovery of the youth but will be accused of murder if he dies, police said.

Officers learned the youth struck the dog while driving home from school. Last night the Grenadas came to his home, informed him the dog was dead and demanded payment. He said he had no money, whereupon Grenada attacked him.

JAMES LEWIS, DEMOCRAT, GETS SURPRISE AID IN RACE FOR SENATE FROM G. O. P. MAYOR

By MERTON T. AKERS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—(UP)—James Hamilton Lewis found himself the unwitting political bedfellow of "Big Bill" Thompson, Chicago's Republican mayor, today after he had touched off the climax of his senatorial campaign in a burst of red fire and oratory before 30,000 cheering Democrats.

Lewis' well-wishers, equipped with all manner of noise making devices and candles of red fire, stormed the Chicago stadium to hear the suave Democrat launch the final drive for votes that he hopes will carry him to the United States senate again in preference to the dynamic and patrician Ruth Hanna McCormick.

A few hours before, 100,000 circulars bearing no signatures but obviously from the mayor's office, went out to thousands of Negro voters. The pamphlets called on the Negroes to vote for Lewis and scratch the name of Mrs. McCormick when they go to the polls November 4.

Below the caption "To the Negroes of Illinois" the circulars bore the facsimiles of the heads of the Democratic and Republican parties, with Mrs. McCormick's name scratched and Lewis' marked with a cross. To call further attention to the Lewis vote, a large black hand pointed to it. The circulars first appeared on the desks of the city aldermen when they assembled for a council meeting yesterday afternoon.

After accusing the late Senator Medill McCormick, husband of the Republican nominee, of having said the Chicago race riots of 1919 were justified, the circular said:

"Those who vote for a member of the Chicago Tribune family for the high office of United States senator may jeopardize their lives because a seat in the senate would again give great political power to a McCormick and the Tribune to use against public peace and peaceful citizens."

According to the Tribune, Mayor Thompson made three attempts to write the circular before penning one that he could issue. The first, the Tribune said, bore his signature. When his advisors objected, the Tribune said the mayor revised it with blanks left for prominent Negroes to sign, including Oscar De Priest, Negro congressman who is supporting Mrs. McCormick. This they refused to do, the Tribune reported, and again the mayor blue penciled the copy to make it anonymous.

The text of the circular bore the words "I" and "my" despite the fact there was no signature.

The circular appeared to cause little if any consternation in political circles, but it drew a statement from Mrs. McCormick.

18-YEAR-OLD PET CAT GETS $15,000

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—(UP)—The economic depression holds no fears for Mitzel, 18-year-old pet cat Mitzel has a $15,000 fortune and a palatial home at San Gabriel to care for her the rest of her nine lives.

The fortune and home were provided in the will of Dr. Maude F. Cain, a practicing physician, whose $500,000 estate was under probate in superior court today.

Dr. Cain stipulated that her home shall be kept intact as a refuge for Mitzel. Pauline Goetz, housekeeper, will live there also and look after Mitzel. She received a $15,000 fund of her own as compensation.

A third of the estate was set aside for charity, of which $25,000 will go to the Mercy hospital of Springfield, Mass., and the remainder to the Sisters of Providence corp., Holyoke, Mass., to aid needy working girls.

JUDGES WILL RECEIVE BIRD CONTEST PICTURES TONIGHT

Colored bird pictures continued to pour into The Register office today as contestants rushed to get their entries to the bird coloring contest judges before tonight, when the deadline for pictures will arrive.

Many children took advantage of the drawing published yesterday and a flock of pictures arrived today. The picture was printed a second time so that those who did not see it last Saturday could enter the contest this week.

Tonight the judges will be busy going over the pictures and selecting the prize winners, which will be announced as soon as a decision has been reached.

Will Act To Co-Operate With Hoover

Half Million Dollars Will Be Involved In Programs

PLANS LOOKING toward early execution of a number of important public improvement projects, some of them already provided for in budgets and only awaiting completion of plans and specifications, and others under consideration, involving outlays of nearly half a million dollars, are being made by the board of county supervisors, the Santa Ana city government, and other political units in the county, in response to the call sent out by President Hoover for co-operation in solving the unemployment situation.

Inquiries at the court house disclosed that plans for a series of projects, including road construction in different sections of the county, improvements at Irvine park, and flood protection work on the Santa Ana river, aggregating $250,000, are being rushed and that contracts will be let at the earliest possible date. Remodeling of St. Ann's inn to fit the needs of the county, involving several thousand dollars, is another item that will be added to list of employment projects.

In this connection, Supervisor C. H. Chapman, of Santa Ana, stated that while it is the desire of the supervisors that contractors employ as far as possible Orange county labor, it is impossible to insist on such a practice. He called attention to the fact that it is true that a number of outside concerns have secured contracts here, on the other hand Santa Ana and other Orange county contractors have secured contracts in other localities.

Inquiries at the city hall revealed a sincere desire on the part of the city administration to do everything in its power to co-operate with President Hoover in his efforts to tide over the present unemployment crisis. Councilman Stanley E. Goode suggested that the city council take up the matter of flood protection work on Santiago creek from the North Main street bridge to Flower street, which would be performed by day labor under supervision of the city engineering department. This work has to be undertaken soon as a safety measure to meet contingencies that may arise with an unusually heavy rainy season. Councilman Goode favored employment of day labor on this project.

Bandits Routed by Guards In Chicago Machine Gun Fight

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Bravery displayed by four express guards in protecting the $17,000 payroll of the American Colorotype company by engaging in a pitched battle with three bandits armed with a machine gun while 80 terrified employees sought cover, was lauded by police today.

Appearing at the information window of the company the bandits displayed the machine gun and shouted: "It's a holdup! Everybody stand up!"

The guards, J. G. Haslip, John Karpp, Tom Tomlinson and John Lane, leaped behind desks and started firing with revolvers. The bandits returned the fire with the machine gun, slugs splintering desks where many young women and men were at work.

After more than 100 shots were exchanged the bandits fled, one believed to have been wounded.

"It'll be worth $1000 any time you kill a bandit," J. D. Allen, president of the Brinks Express company, said as he handed each of the guards a check for $100.

APPEAL OF SLAYER DENIED BY COURT

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Conviction of John Dewey Bolton, 26, dancing instructor, for the murder of his young wife, Lucille, and his sentence to prison for life were just and lawful, the appellate court held in a decision today denying his appeal.

Evidence was sufficient to warrant the jury's verdict and no error was committed by the trial judge, the appellate court held, in admitting testimony about Bolton's abuse of his wife and possession of a pistol.

Mrs. Bolton was shot near Torrance canyon November 9, 1929. Bolton declared bandits stopped them and shot his wife when she recognized one of them.

Reveal Asserted $10,000,000 Tax Fraud On Income

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Federal authorities revealed today they have discovered evidence of $10,000,000 in income tax frauds and evasions by construction and contracting companies which were given contracts by the Chicago sanitary district.

Disclosure of the suspected fraud was made when the federal grand jury returned indictments today charging the Dowdle Company, Inc., with tax frauds and evasions and violation of the internal revenue act, amounting to approximately $1,500,000 during 1926, 1927 and 1928.

Couple Loses Count Of Re-Marriages

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—(UP)—John C. and Charlotte J. Meyer have been married and divorced so many times that one of them, possibly both, has forgotten the number.

"We've been married five times, divorced four," Meyer told Judge John J. Sullivan. "No, no, no," interrupted Mrs. Meyer, "it was three. I remember each time well. The charge was always the same, cruelty."

Meyer recounted this history of their alternate church and courtroom appearances as he remembered them—married in 1910, divorced in 1911; married in 1912, divorced in 1913; re-married in 1919; re-re-married in 1920; divorced in 1926; re-re-re-married the same year.

Judge Sullivan signed the new decree, either the third or fifth, according to which of them has the better memory.

BODIES OF 250 MINE VICTIMS ARE RECOVERED

THIRTY WORKERS IN GERMAN MINE ARE STILL ENTOMBED

ALSODORF, Germany, Oct. 23.—(UP)—The apparently hopeless task of rescuing some 30 miners entombed by an explosion in the Wilhelm pit of the Anna mines was carried on today.

Workers had brought 250 bodies to the surface this morning through the debris of the wrecked shaft.

One group of men, the number still not exactly determined, remained locked in the deepest levels of the mine. Little hope, however, was felt that they would be found alive, for the difficulties of the rescue workers increased as they burrowed slowly down into the mine and encountered debris that appeared at least temporarily impassable.

Rescuers were forced to halt their work at times due to the difficulties in their path. Huge masses of rock, landslides in the mine corridors, and piles of timbers and supports wrecked by the explosion, lay between them and their entombed comrades.

Ninety-six men were accounted for in hospitals. Crowds still stood at the mine entrance seeking news of missing relatives. Officials made every effort to obtain a complete check on the number of missing, but continued to encounter difficulties.

Officials denied reports that a rescue party of 31 men had been entombed by the collapse of a roof in the mine.

KELLOGG JUDGE OF PERMANENT COURT

THE HAGUE, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Frank B. Kellogg was sworn in today as a judge of the Permanent Court of International Justice and was welcomed by President D. Anzilotti, of Italy.

Anzilotti paid tribute to the international achievements, such as the pact of Paris of Kellogg and expressed gratification that the American was ready to accept the judgeship.

The court then considered the Franco-Swiss controversy relative to establishment of a free customs zone.

Driver Is Jailed After Child Dies

TULARE, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Harry J. Woods, 42, Tulare, was under arrest here today on a charge of drunken driving after he had been identified tentatively as the driver of the automobile that ran down and killed Joe Degas, 7, yesterday afternoon.

The boy was going home from school when he was struck down. Woods was arrested shortly afterward.

17 MEN HELD AS OFFICERS SOUND ALARM

Patrolman Is Blinded By Spray From Tear Gas Gun of Booze Runner

TRUCKS CONFISCATED

Police of Three Cities Of Massachusetts Make Important Rum Capture

SALEM, Mass., Oct. 23.—(UP)—Some 400 cases and kegs of Scotch, rye and brandy, said to have a retail value of $100,000, were confiscated and 17 alleged rum runners captured by police of Marblehead, Salem and Lynn today.

A general alarm which preceded the seizure and arrests was sounded after Patrolman George B. Kelley had been blinded by spray from a tear gas pistol while patrolling on the Marblehead side of Salem harbor, the suspected scene of illegal rum operations.

While watching a cottage which they believed to be headquarters of a rum gang, Kelley and Lieut. Thomas Sweet saw a gasoline boat, about 18 feet long, steal out from Wyman Beach, several hundred yards away. About the same time, a motor truck was heard moving out from the beach toward the main highway.

Sweet started toward the truck, while Kelley went in the direction of Wyman Beach.

Kelley encountered a man and challenged him. The suspect walked toward the patrolman and when within a few feet of him pulled out a pistol, from which he directed a gaseous spray at Kelley. Kelley called for help and Sweet, soon had sounded a general alarm.

A liquor laden motor truck and two men were seized on Lafayette street. An empty truck and the rest of the contraband were taken at Wyman Beach.

GAUSS, DYE TRIAL DATE IS CHANGED

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—(UP)—The trial of Lloyd W. Dye and Gordon Eugene Gauss, accused of slaying Wade Horton, aged and wealthy Mint canyon rancher, has been reset for November 25 by Superior Judge Walton J. Wood.

Scheduled originally for November 5, the case was reset when Deputy District Attorney Tom Menzies declared that the state needed the testimony of Dr. A. F. Wagner, county autopsy surgeon, who will not be in Los Angeles until November 15.

Football Players Suspended as They Strike for Salary

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Five members of the freshman football squad of George Washington university were suspended today from all further participation in school athletics, following an "insurrection" at which the players are said to have demanded salaries, as well as free tuition and board.

Athletic Director James Pixlee was backed in his action by Lloyd Hack Marvin, president of the university. The players dropped were Vance Jovick, Frank Walsh, John Hoffess, Charles Robinson and George Generosa.

Shuler Station Given License

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—(UP)—The federal radio commission granted today a 30-day license to station KGEF, Los Angeles, operated by the Rev. Bob Shuler, pending an investigation of charges against the station. The license dates from November 1.

In order that money spent on the same would go to the pockets of bona fide Santa Ana working men and not to laborers brought in here from other communities.

Councilman W. G. Kelly thought that in order to provide employment to men without work, the city should take up the improvement of the Olive street bowl and develop the same into a recreation center.

The Irvine company announced that it had completed arrangements for the construction of a small dam in Peters canyon, contract for which involving an expenditure of $55,000 will be let next week. This dam will be built near the old Santiago golf club. Contracts for other parts of the $750,000 Irvine company water conservation program will be let next January or February, inquiries revealed.

Coupled with proposed improvements to relieve the unemployment situation, it was suggested that, with the approval of Postmaster Stephenson, a telegram be sent to the treasury department, Washington, D. C., urging the speeding up of proceedings preliminary to letting contract for the construction of the new $200,000 federal building.

Dr. Roy S. Horton, chairman of the building committee of the Santa Ana board of education, stated that the board stands ready to proceed with the construction of the new $80,000 Jefferson grammar school, for which money is available, as soon as the school and the city authorities can agree on a suitable site.

Dr. Horton added that numerous complaints have reached him regarding employment of much outside labor on the new Frances E. Willard junior high school by C. W. Pettifer, Long Beach contractor. A conference meeting has been called for next Monday evening at the board rooms between members of the school board and the various contractors working on the project with a view to arriving at a better understanding on the question of employing outside labor.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(UP)—Plans for organizing federal machinery for handling the problem of 3,500,000 or more unemployed men and women were discussed today by President Hoover with Col. Arthur Woods, director of federal relief, and others placed in charge of the work.

It was decided at the White House conference attended by Woods; Chairman Lamont of the cabinet; unemployment council; Secretary of War Huxley and Under-Secretary of Treasury Ogden Mills, to begin immediately with organization of federal activity.

After the conference, Woods said he would select a corps of assistants immediately. Their task, he said, would be to promote co-ordination among states, municipalities and private industries to find work for jobless whose families already are feeling the pinch of winter.

"The country must be aroused to do its part," Woods said. "Industry already has been doing much to alleviate the situation."

Woods indicated he would model his new organization upon the one he set up in 1921 with the co-operation of President Hoover, then secretary of commerce in President Harding's cabinet.

The new director expressed the opinion that one factor which makes the present task less difficult than that in 1921 was that the various local agencies already are at work upon the problem.

The problem of co-ordination of agencies was also stressed by Lamont after the White House meeting.

"To effect this, we must first organize ourselves," he said. "The first step will be the selection of a group of assistants for Colonel Woods. These men, picked with the greatest care, will be drafted from their various activities to give full time to this great public work."

BANDIT SUSPECTS PLACED IN CELLS

Bobbie Hall and Eileen Sparks, Los Angeles Negro women, were returned to the county jail here last night from Los Angeles, where they were arrested on suspicion of the holdup of L. Dunn, Anaheim man, last Sunday night in front of the Anaheim Nazarene church.

The women were arrested when they were found in a car which bore the auto license of that used in the holdup, officers said. The car was traced to them after F. W. Howard, chief criminal deputy sheriff, learned that it had been sold five times since September 1.

The women have not been arraigned on a robbery charge but were being quizzed by officers at the jail this afternoon. Dunn is asserted to have identified the Hall woman as one of the bandits.

Federal Reserve Rejects Proposal On Bond Purchase

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Federal reserve board officials rejected today proposals that they authorize purchase of half a billion dollars in government bonds to aid business recovery.

In informal comment on the current credit situation, a prominent board official said he could see little need for any such action by the reserve system. He also held that other recent schemes suggested by private business men had little merit.

Purchase of $500,000,000 in government bonds was urged by T. B. MacCauley, New York insurance executive, who said this would place much additional money in circulation for business purposes. The same suggestion has come from other sources.

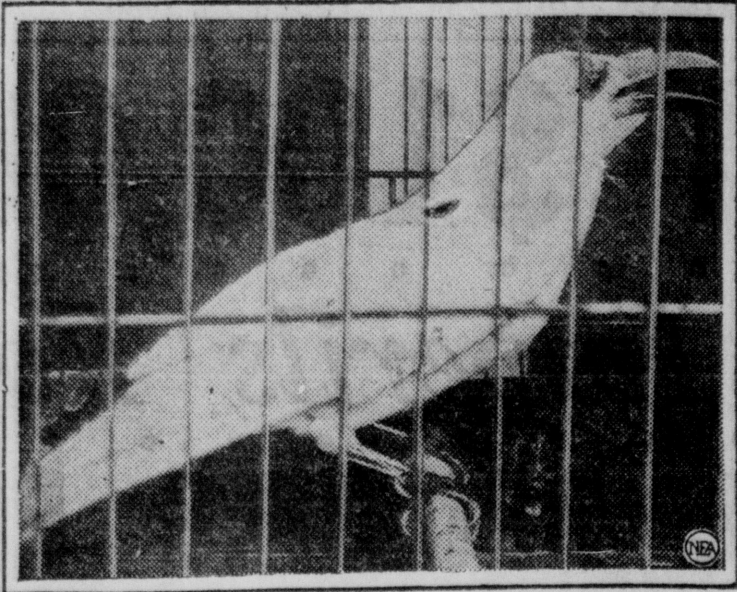

Chamber Approves Exchange Trading

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Methods of trading in commodities now maintained on commodity exchanges were endorsed today in resolutions adopted by the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Member chambers of commerce in every state adopted the resolutions through a referendum. Four resolutions in all were adopted and were declared to be the policy of the chamber.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Here is one of the rarest of all of nature's freaks—a white crow. The bird is the property of Charles M. Skitt, of Los Angeles, who rescued it in the desert near Barstow, Calif., as a flock of its darker brothers were about to peck it to death. Black crows always destroy these albinos, which occur very infrequently.

Bugs' Moran Is Released Under Bond Of $10,000

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—(UP)—George "Bugs" Moran, notorious gangster arrested as a violator of the ancient vagrancy law invoked by Judge John H. Lyle in the jurist's drive against 26 "public enemies," was free again today under a $10,000 bond furnished mysteriously while he was on his way from Lyle's courtroom to the county jail.

Between the time Moran was placed under bond and the time a dozen other prisoners who left the courtroom with him arrived at the jail, an unidentified person deposited $10,000 in cash with James A. Kearns, clerk of municipal courts, and Moran was released at the jail door.

Moran was arrested by Lake county authorities several days ago. He had dodged Chicago police for weeks after Judge Lyle issued arrest orders for him, the two Capones, and all the other 23 gangsters listed by the crime commission as "public enemies."

Heil and family were of a group of relatives who gathered at the home of a sister, Mrs. Ernest Marks, for a turkey dinner which was given in honor of a sister, Mrs. Bryan Crawford, of Santa Ana, and sister-in-law, Mrs. J. Brown of Tustin, who were celebrating birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Whittet returned Sunday night from two weeks spent at Elsinore. On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Whittet attended the meeting of Liberty Court of Amargosa at Anaheim where the royal matron and royal patron were visitors at the lodge meeting.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Woodson, who have been entertaining as guests for a week their daughter, Mrs. Bishop Galloway, and two children, Norman and Patsy Ruth Galloway, of Colton, had as guests in their home Sunday Mr. Galloway who motored here from Colton to take his family home, and their other son-in-law and daughter, Mr.

and Mrs. Cecil Sauer of Huntington Beach.

Mrs. B. F. Henderson spent two days in Los Angeles attending an evening session off the Rebekah lodge while in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Moritz entertained as over Sunday guests in their home Mrs. Moritz's brother-in-law and sister, who are of Ventura.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Gillispy and two children have returned to Midway City from Santa Maria where Mr. Gillispy has been for some time with an oil company. They are occupying their own home on Van Buren street which has been vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Cooper.

Mrs. Fred French was in Corona Saturday and Sunday as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Newhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mansperger were Saturday evening guests in Huntington Beach of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Yost, who were entertaining as week end guests Mr. Yost's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yost and daughter, former Midway City residents. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Carl Yost and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yost and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Enos and daughter of Midway City, were entertained at cards in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mansperger.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Esser and daughter, Miss Isabelle, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Young and together enjoyed a long motor trip in the afternoon.

Mrs. Delores Morrison of Costa Mesa, was a Sunday dinner guest of Mrs. W. H. Taylor and in the evening Mrs. Taylor and her guest attended the theater.

Barbara Jean Enos, who has been ill for several days is improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robinson and son, Robert Robinson, were entertained Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Zekos at their home at San Pedro. Mrs. Zekos is a daughter of Mrs. Robinson, the family having recently left here for their present location.

Miss R. D. Saylor left Monday night for Spokane to meet Walter

J. Hill, who is returning from Montana and South Dakota, where he has been on an extended vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Yost and daughter, of Huntington Beach, were entertained as recent dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Enos.

The class of senior young people of the Nazarene Sunday school and the Live Wire class of the same school are holding a Halloween party Saturday evening at the community clubhouse. Miss Genevieve McMillan is teacher of the seniors and Mrs. C. R. Hart is teacher of the Live Wires, and will chaperone the party.

One coat of stucco has been applied to the exterior of the Nazarene parsonage and the finishing coat for the interior was completed with the exception of the kitchen and bath by the first of the week. Some of the plumbing was done Tuesday. The work has been delayed owing to the inability of the men who are donating the work to do it sooner.

Holdup Men Take $125,000 In Gems

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(UP)—A holdup as thousands of workers thronged the streets netted bandits $125,000 in diamonds and platinum from the store of Segman & Abram, manufacturing jewelers of 102 Fulton street today.

William Segman stepped out of the crowd to open the front door when he felt pressure on his back and a voice said:

"Go ahead, don't turn around or we'll kill you."

He was bound and gagged. The robbers escaped before other members of the firm arrived.

Less than five years ago, Al Singer, present lightweight boxing champion of the world, was a soda jerk dishing them out across the counter for a reported wage of three cents a drink.

Licenses Of Five Doctors Revoked

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Licenses of five doctors were revoked yesterday by the State Board of Medical Examiners, in session here. They included those of Dr. Walter Hoyt, Gridley, habitual intemperance; Dr. James T. Brown, Los Angeles, violation of probate; Dr. Samuel B. Cottrill, Los Angeles, violation of state narcotic laws; Dr. Newton B. Siler, Los Angeles, violation of probate, and Dr. Archibald Atkinson, North Sacramento, narcotic addiction. The license of Dr. Robert H. MacLaughlin of Santa Cruz, was suspended for one year, following conviction on a charge of aiding and abetting an unlicensed practitioner.

Trial Of Walnut Picker On Nov. 5

ORANGE, Oct. 23.—The trial of J. J. Hillebury, which was to have been held in Judge Ingles court this morning, when Charles Havens and Hillebury were to have appeared, Havens as the plaintiff and Hillebury as the defendant, has been continued until November 5 at 10 o'clock.

Havens was freed of a charge of disturbing the peace in the same court on October 7 and now appears as the plaintiff.

The trial is the outcome of an encounter between the two men when Hillebury questioned the legality of a pay check given him by Havens, for work in picking a part of the latter's walnut crop.

Greek divers with headquarters at Tarpon Springs on the west coast of Florida, annually bring from the bottom of the Gulf of Mexico spongers worth about $1,000,000.

100 ATTRACTED TO BEACH CITY P.-T. A. SESSION

NEWPORT-Balboa, Oct. 23.—One hundred mothers attended the Parent-Teacher meeting held at the Newport school Tuesday afternoon with Dr. Bert Steelhead of the Herbert Hoover high school of Glendale as the speaker.

"Vacational Guidance" was interestingly explained. His talk was supplemented with blackboard drawings and data from the mimeograph questionnaires used in the high school.

Students are given the chance to make their own choices, first, second and third, of 24 groups of vocations, and each group has four to six branches, the idea being for a boy while in high school to prepare for a choice of livelihood wherein he will be happy and not waste useful years of life in preparation.

A demonstration of physical education work was put on by sixth, seventh and eighth grade girls of the school.

Mrs. Leo McGavren, president, presided.

CHAVEZ, GREGORY DRAW

WILMINGTON, Oct. 23.—Joe Cardoza, hard hitting Culver City welterweight, scored a technical knockout over Larry Murphy in the ninth round of their scheduled ten-round main event here last night. "Red" Gregory and Zenaydo Chavez fought six rounds to a draw in the semi-final.

DEATHS

A WORD OF COMFORT

Why look all around you for the peace which can come to you only from within your own heart?
The fact that it is within you does not signify that God has no part in it and that you are sufficient unto yourself. Nay! It means that God speaks from within your soul through the high impulses and deep loyalties that He calls into being there.
Cease expecting somebody else to soothe and to comfort you. Ask God to show you how to use for the good of others the experience you are undergoing. Out of the depths of your own life will rise the strength which will bring you peace.

GULLEY—In Santa Ana, October 22, 1930, William F. Gulley, age 73 years. He is survived by three sons, Fred and Lawrence, of Santa Ana, and Walter Gulley, and one sister, Mrs. Zella Ruesland, of Los Angeles. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. at Harrell & Brown Funeral home, 116 West Seventeenth street, with the Rev. Harry Owings, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating and committal services at Sunny-side mausoleum, Long Beach, under the auspices of Orange Grove lodge No. 225, F. & A. M.

Local Briefs

Clark E. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Brown, of 611 West First street, and a former student of the Business Institute and Secretarial school, 415 North Sycamore street, has accepted a position with the Excelsior Creamery company.

John Oleson, who has been a resident of this city and representative of the Los Angeles Soap company, is being transferred to Kansas City. Jack Dermody, transferred from Portland, Oregon, is taking over Oleson's work in Orange county.

One of the broadest smiles ever seen on Santa Ana street today accompanied J. Fred Parsons whenever he went, whether to join some of his cronies at the Elks club or about his usual business downtown. The reason for the "standing broad grin" was closely connected with a certain little pink, squirming, flannel-wrapped atom of humanity, feminine in sex, who last night made her advent at Santa Ana hospital, to be warmly welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Parsons and a host of relatives and friends.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS—Letters for the following parties remain unclaimed for the Post Office at Santa Ana, Calif., for the week ending Oct. 25, 1930.

Finance Company Must Give Stock To Bank of Italy

Judge G. K. Scovel today entered judgment in the case of the Bank of Italy National Trust and Savings association against the Federal Finance company, et al, in which judgment was awarded to the plaintiff.

The action was brought by the bank to secure title to a certificate of stock in the finance company, following the financial maneuver of W. W. Ross, who is now serving a term in San Quentin prison after pleading guilty to a charge of grand theft after he was apprehended and brought to court.

Judgment held that the plaintiff was entitled to possession of the certificate for 50 shares of the capital stock of the Federal Finance company, which had been issued to Ross, and which the finance company had claimed was turned over by Ross as part payment for some of the loss he had caused the Santa Ana concern through his manipulation of auto certificates and loans.

Demands $16,480 For Injuries In Highway Accident

Injuries sustained in an accident while a wrecking car was pulling an auto back to the state highway were made the basis of a $16,480 damage suit which was filed in superior court yesterday afternoon on a change of venue from Los Angeles county by J. P. Smith against Charles H. Vernon, et al.

Smith asserts he received severe injuries, including a crushed right leg and torn ligaments in the accident. He itemizes damages as $15,000 general damages and $1480 special damages for hospital expenses and loss of his salary while incapacitated.

HOLLYWOOD ONE UP IN SERAPH SERIES

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—The Hollywood Stars were one up on the Los Angeles Angels today as the two teams entered the lists at Wrigley field for the second game of the Pacific Coast league championship series.

Seven home runs featured the 10 inning game, won by the Stars with a 9 to 3 score. Both teams used three pitchers in attempts to stem the furious batting and club managers were in sore straits today to secure competent moundmen.

FOOTBALL TRAVELERS TO SPEND $400,000

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—Hotels, railroads, restaurants, and the Pullman company will divide a $400,000 plum this week-end because of the Stanford-U. S. C. game. It was estimated today. The added income will be divided roughly as follows: Hotel rooms $88,000; meals $70,000; railroad fares $240,000, barbs and miscellaneous $48,000.

Sample Ballots In Mails Friday

Work of preparing the sample ballots, booklets on the proposed constitutional amendments and designation of voting places for mailing to all registered voters in Orange county is being completed at the office of County Clerk J. M. Backs. The envelopes containing this material is expected to be placed in the mails tomorrow.

The material is to be sent to each of the 50,504 regularly registered voters in the county, and is a task that has occupied a large staff of workers in the clerk's office for the past several weeks.

BENEFIT SHOW SPONSORED BY GROUP OCT. 29

Hoping to increase materially, the funds with which they carry on their welfare work throughout Orange county, members of the county council of Catholic Women have completed plans for a big benefit theater party to be held in an Orange theater Wednesday night, October 29, according to announcement made today by Mrs. Vincent A. Rossiter.

"The county council, like all welfare organizations, finds an ever-increasing demand upon its treasury by the present unemployment situation and we are planning the theater party with the hope of raising sufficient funds to carry us through several months," today declared Mrs. Rossiter. "This is the first time we have ever made an appeal to the public for support, but we feel justified in doing it, because our work is absolutely non-sectarian as needy people, whether Catholic or Protestant, are given any assistance which we can render."

The council has been promised a special show on the date in question, beginning at 8 o'clock and lasting until 10:30. Nine acts of vaudeville of the highest class, a news reel and a comedy, will comprise the bill. The vaudeville is to be lavishly staged, and will feature singing, dancing, comedians and many novelties including a dramatic one-act play starring a Broadway favorite.

Mrs. Rossiter has named a ticket chairman in each county community and Mrs. Ashby Turner will have charge of Santa Ana sales.

The river Jordan is about 200 miles long and varies in width from 100 to 200 feet.

Former Catalina Officer Arraigned On Theft Charge

John Arthur, alias Jack Nelson, 33, former police officer at Avalon, Catalina island, was arraigned in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court this morning on a charge of petty theft. Bail was set at $1000.

Arthur was arrested last night on a warrant by Deputy Sheriff Humiston and Moeley. He is accused of stealing a radio from the Turner Radio company here.

PUBLIC MASS MEETINGS FOR LEAGUE LISTED

Schedules of public mass meetings in the interest of the work of the Law Enforcement league of Orange county and its candidates, Logan Jackson for sheriff and Harry Westover for district attorney, were released today by R. R. Lutes, secretary of the organization and its campaign manager.

There is to be a mass meeting at Laguna Beach in the school auditorium at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow, with an address by J. Frank Burke. The Rev. U. E. Harding, of Santa Ana, will address a meeting to be held in the city hall auditorium at Huntington Beach at 7:30 p. m., October 30. Dr. George A. Warner, of Santa Ana, is to be the principal speaker at two meetings, one at Anaheim, Tuesday, October 28, and the other at the Legion hall in Fullerton, on Saturday, November 1. Ralph C. Smedley, secretary of the Santa Ana Y.M.C.A., will speak at a meeting in the La Habra Methodist church on Sunday night, November 2.

MAN HURT IN 25-FOOT FALL OFF BUILDING

William Carroll, 22, of 427 North McClay street, was seriously injured shortly after 9 o'clock this morning when he fell from the second floor scaffold at the Pacific Telephone company building at Fifth and Bush streets.

He was taken to the Santa Ana Valley hospital, where it was reported he suffered internal injuries and several broken ribs. His condition this afternoon was reported as critical.

Carroll is an employee of J. W. Markel and Son, contractors, who are adding a new section to the telephone building. His foot slipped and he fell from the scaffold to the pavement 25 feet below.

Corbett, it is alleged, drew a check in the amount of $42.50, signing a fictitious name, which he represented as genuine to a Santa Ana clothing firm. The alleged crime was committed on September 20, it is shown in the information filed by the district attorney's office.

John Hay and John Engel were given fines of $2 in police court yesterday on charges of violation of the city parking laws.

An order fixing the amount of inheritance tax in the Rice estate which has been entered by Judge

James L. Allen, shows that the two sons are to pay the tax totaling $210.84. Their shares are divided as follows: James W. Rice, $20,407.20; Percy F. Rice, $20,677.20.

Tony Cardoza, charged with being drunk, was fined $25 in police court yesterday.

A suit was filed today by Orange Park Acres against R. F. Reish, asking judgment to foreclose the defendant's rights under a contract for the purchase of two lots in the tract at a price of $11,818.40. It is alleged that payments, after the initial payment of $2954.60, have not been made as required in the contract.

J. E. Litten, of 3109 West Third street, Santa Ana, reported the theft of an auto trailer from his garage last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roepke, of Van Nuys, visited relatives here Sunday.

'POSSUM PAYS VISIT TO HOME, LANDS IN CAGE

Human beings have made such a practice of invading the haunts of wild animals, that perhaps it was only a desire for like action on the part of creatures of the wild that led an adventurous little sharp-nosed opossum to seek the very center of Santa Ana. But whatever the urge that directed Mr. 'Possum, the fact remains that he had calmly taken up his abode in the basement of the Baughman and Cackler home at 220 South Broadway.

Mrs. Baughman's daughter, Mrs. Jennie Cackler, was busily raking leaves and had need of a certain basket in the basement. But when she went to get it, she found that a 'possum had jumped her claim, so to speak, and was curled up in a nice forenoon nap. It was an even bet as to which was more surprised, Mrs. Cackler or Mr. 'Possum, but at least the former showed more executive ability, for her first action was to summon help.

That help was speedily forthcoming in the person of W. H. Hamill, city poundmaster and active worker in the Orange County Humane society, who appeared on the scene with the light car in which so many stray animals have ridden to the city pound, there to await their masters, old or new, or that oblivion which is far more merciful than starvation and homelessness.

It wasn't a particularly dangerous feat to secure the 'possum by his long smooth tail, and place him in his "kerridge," although it might be explained in passing that the man picking him up was careful to don heavy gloves for the occasion. And even if a cat in gloves caught a mouse, a man in gloves caught a 'possum. "They may eat all the 'possums," the man declared firmly. "The meat is too rich and strong for me."

Passersby at the Register office, where the humane officer stopped with his strange new acquisition, volunteered many stories of similar animals and their invasion of civilization. Perhaps due to unusual conditions in the mountains where there are few nuts and green shoots, the animals are coming in closer than usual to the populated districts. Spencer W. Elliott of the post office force declared that bobcats are frequently encountered by the carriers on the rural routes, and one of the other carriers of the local office had the rare experience last week of seeing a full grown mountain lion near Irvine park. He tried to get the animal, which has a $30 bounty, but was unsuccessful.

LA HABRA, Oct. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Threlkeld are spending several days this week in Sacramento.

Henry Newson left Tuesday with a party of fishermen from San Pedro for off shore fishing in old Mexico.

Chief of Police James Caldwell and wife enjoyed a successful fishing trip near Azusa this week.

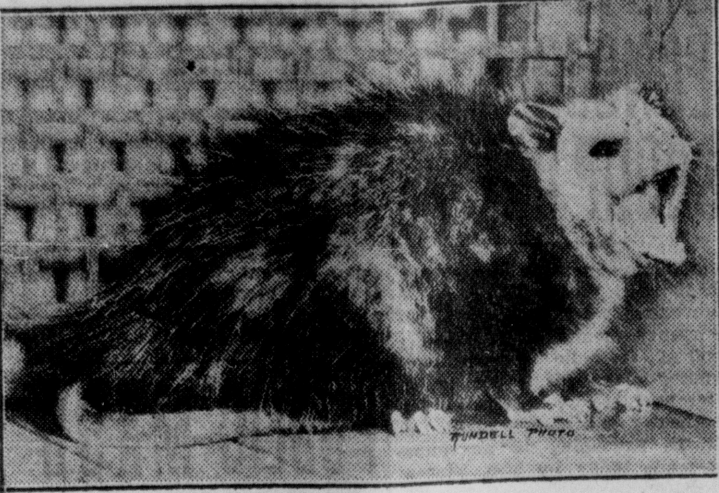

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ward are expected to return this week from a few weeks trip through Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas. Mr. and Mrs. T. Conn are staying at the ranch during their absence.

Mrs. Frank Davis, matron of the Eastern Star chapter at La Habra, and Mrs. H. B. Davis, Miss Ethel Linsdell and Mrs. Fred Clark, are spending several days at Oakland, where they are attending the grand chapter of the O. E. S.

PLAYING DEAD? NOT MUCH!

Mr. 'Possum doesn't like the cage of the city poundmaster and doesn't care who knows it. He was captured in the basement of a home on South Broadway.

WESTMINSTER

WESTMINSTER, Oct. 23.—Announcement is made that one next Sunday morning following church services there is to be a congregational meeting at the Westminster Presbyterian church for the purpose of selecting a minister for the charge. The Westminster church has been without a pastor since last May.

The Rev. Cyril Carter, assistant pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian church of Long Beach, has preached twice for the local congregation, being a candidate for the pastorate. The Rev. M. E. Bacon occupied the pulpit on Sunday and Mrs. Ann Campbell was soloist at the morning service.

The new drug store, soda fountain and lunch of which J. W. Rogers is proprietor, opened on Saturday.

Mrs. Floyd Morris spent Monday in Los Angeles, and was of a party of women entertained at a bridge luncheon in the home of her sister, Mrs. Nellie Herrod.

Mrs. P. A. Lawrence has convalesced so rapidly from a recent major operation that she is expected home within a few days. Mrs. Lawrence is receiving visitors.

Happy Workers society meets for all day Wednesday at the social hall and will serve the usual public dinner at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Overacre, of Hollister, and Mrs. Moore, who were of a party of relatives visiting in the D. L. Gallagher home, have returned north, while Mrs. Gallagher's mother, Mrs. Lee, who accompanied them here from Watsonville, is remaining for a longer time in the Gallagher home.

Harry Penhall was the recipient of many good wishes for his birthday anniversary when on Sunday evening members of the family gathered for a 5 o'clock chicken dinner in the home in observance of the date. Those present were the daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Day and daughter and son, and three sons, their wives and children, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Penhall and two sons and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Penhall and son, of Westminster, and Mr. and Mrs. Merton Penhall and children, of Cypress.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walton and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Penhall and sons, Marvin and Adelbert, were entertained at dinner Sunday in the home of Mr. Walton's brother, Nathaniel Walton, and wife at Bellflower.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wallace of San Bernardino, visited Monday in the home of Mrs. Addie L. Blakey and on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Talbert and Mrs. Talbert's mother, Mrs. M. L. Thurman, of Talbert, were callers.

Ralph Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Edwards, sustained a painful cut on his nose Thursday which required the taking of stitches. Ralph was running for his lunch box at noon when he collided with the merry-go-round on the play ground. He was taken on at once to Dr. Russell I. Johnson, local physician, for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Hay entertained as dinner guests in their home Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Huddleston, of Long Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Penhall. Mrs. Huddleston is a former kindergarten teacher in the Westminster school.

Mr. Alderman, local property owner from Joliet, Ill., came here from Los Angeles Thursday and visited in the H. B. Anderson home while seeing after property interests here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Farrar entertained as their dinner guests

Wednesday, Mr. Farrar's brother, Earl Farrar, and wife, of Huntington Beach, and Ed. Moore.

Mrs. Ollie Farrar, sister-in-law of Lee Farrar, is now at the Farrar home convalescing from a major operation to which she recently submitted at a Whittier hospital. Mrs. Farrar's home is in Stockton.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Edwards and sons and Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Day and family were among relatives of John Edwards of Santa Ana who planned and carried out a pleasant birthday surprise for him Thursday evening.

Mrs. Carter of the Blue Wing Shooting club visited Mr. Carter at the Sawtelle hospital, where he has been a patient the past week. Mr. Carter seemed somewhat improved.

Mrs. Robert Falcke and Mr. and Mrs. Magerman motored to Los Angeles Thursday.

Mr. Harlan, of New Westminster, who recently returned from the Santa Fe hospital, Los Angeles, where he was confined with a leg broken in four places, is now up and about his home, the limb being confined in a heavy cast.

Westminster school and Hoover school played a ball game in which Westminster boys and girls teams both defeated the Hoover boys and girls by a high score.

Prof. James Monroe and family were in Manhattan Beach Friday, visiting a niece of Mr. Monroe's who was very ill.

Betty Ann McClelland, fourth grade pupil from New Westminster, is reported as recovering satisfactorily from an attack of pneumonia. Betty Ann has been a patient at the hospital since last Monday.

Mrs. J. L. Edward is enjoying a visit from a cousin, Mrs. Cora Cox, who arrived Wednesday from Santa, Ill., to spend the winter in California. It had been many years since the cousins last met. Mrs. Cox was taken on a trip to Irvine Park and Newport Friday by Mr. and Mrs. Edwards and members of their family.

Four of the teachers of the local school attended the Orange county teachers banquet held Thursday evening in Anaheim, also attending the lecture which was later given at the Temple Baptist church, these being Prof. James Monroe, Mrs. Arthur Murdy, Miss Irene Robinson and Mr. Peterson, while Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Johansen, Mrs. B. B. Brown and Miss McMillen of the faculty attended the lecture only.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hart of New Westminster, entertained as their guest Sunday, Mrs. Hart's brother, of Long Beach.

INTERPRETER IS REPLACED IN MURDER TRIAL

There have been three unusual happenings in the last 24 hours in connection with the murder trial of Jesus Ordaz, which started Tuesday in the court of Judge James L. Allen. A special interpreter has been secured because of objection to Charles Carrillo, regular court interpreter; an alternate juror was added to the regular panel of 12 trying the case because of the probability of the case lasting over a considerable period of time, and the trial was delayed for over an hour yesterday afternoon due to a misunderstanding which resulted in a member of the jury failing to return after the regular noon recess.

Sol Gonzales was sworn in as special court interpreter after objection was raised to the use of Charles Carrillo, regular court interpreter, according to court attaches, in order to translate the testimony of Maria Vargas during the course of the trial yesterday afternoon. Gonzales is a well known merchant and leader among the Spanish speaking people of the community.

The 13 members of the jury, including the alternate who is to act as a regular juror in the event of sickness of any member of the panel which is hearing the evidence, include J. W. Alexander, Search for the missing member of the jury finally was successful and she rushed to the court room to resume her duties.

The bloodstained razor and revolver which it is alleged were used by Ordaz in killing Emma Chavez last June in the apartment in which they were living at Placencia were introduced by the district attorney's office during the course of the trial yesterday. Witnesses for the prosecution who were on the stand yesterday were Dr. Edward A. Brunemeier, Charlie Mitchell and Maria Vargas. At the morning session today Jess Buckles, Maria Martinez, Horace Lucy and Joe Bauchon were on the stand for the prosecution.

Two Cars Stolen Here Wednesday

Police today were searching for two automobiles, reported stolen from Santa Ana streets last night. E. C. Moesser, of 912 1-2 West First street, reported the theft of his automobile from near Third and Birch streets last night. Frank Thompson, of 1017 East Walnut street, reported his car was stolen from near Third and Garfield streets.

To the Editor—I read in an issue of The Register a few days ago a letter signed Just a Carpenter in protest to the way one of our major jobs is being run. He is right. I went to one on Washington and Ross one morning and asked for a job as steel worker. I was told by the steel foreman that he had all the Santa Ana Orange county steel workers he wanted. That he fired two yesterday, and when he wanted steel workers he would send to Los Angeles and get them. I have had 12 years experience as a steel worker, and am a resident of Santa Ana and a voter and proud of it. I have four children in school here, and am trying to give them the advantage of the schools Santa Ana has to offer, and also would like to help build them, if nothing more than to hear my children say, “Daddy helped build this.”

ARRANGE SERVICES FOR W. F. GULLEY, 73

Funeral services for William F. Gulley, 73, retired nursery man and pioneer resident, who passed away yesterday at the home of his son, Fred Gulley, 1415 Durant street, will be held tomorrow at 10 a. m. at the Harrell and Brown Funeral home, the Rev. Harry E. Owings, pastor of the First Baptist church, Santa Ana, officiating.

Mr. Gulley was born in Russellville, Ky., and came to California in 1885, settling in Orange county. He is survived by three sons, Fred and LaVerne Gulley, of Santa Ana, and Walter Gulley, of Los Angeles, and one daughter, Mrs. Zella Riesland, of Los Angeles. He was affiliated with the Baptist church, held membership in Orange Grove lodge No. 293, F. and A. M., and also was a member of the Santa Ana pyramid of Scots. Committal services will be held at the Sunnyside mausoleum, Long Beach, under auspices of the Masonic lodge.

Cash Taken From Service Station; Watch Recovered

Santa Ana police today were investigating three burglaries reported last night.

Burglars entered the Gilmore service station located at the intersection of the Santa Ana boulevard and West Chapman avenue some time last night and took a small amount of change they found in the cash register. Entrance was gained to the place by breaking out a window.

Fred Graft, resident of the Rich- elieu hotel at Fourth and Ross streets, reported that his room was entered by a thief and the place ransacked nothing was stolen.

A watch worth $25 was stolen from the room of Lon Hudkins of the Holgate hotel yesterday by a thief who entered with a pass key. Detective C. V. Adams later located the watch at a second-hand store here, he reported.

There are about 278 lepers in the government leper colony at Carr- ville, Louisiana.

ROSENBLOOM BEATS BAIN, KEEPS TITLE

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Maxie Rosenbloom of Harlem successfully defended his title of light heavy-weight champion against Abbie Bain of Newark, N. J., at Madison Square Garden last night.

Rosenbloom was declared the winner on a technical knockout in the eleventh round of a scheduled 15-round bout when Bain, bleeding from a deep cut over his left eye, was waved to his corner by Referee Lou Magnolia.

Business School Enjoys Program

The students of the Business Institute and Secretarial school at 415 North Sycamore street, were entertained by members of the student body at the assembly period Wednesday.

Miss Vivian McCarty, of Pla-

Late News From Orange And Nearby Towns

CAST OF 40 IN WOMAN'S CLUB SHOW TONIGHT

ORANGE, Oct. 23.—Old time southern songs will be heard across the footlights tonight, when a cast of 40 local men and women present "Minstrel Follies" at the Orange Women's clubhouse. This blackface show is being sponsored by the Women's club of this city and promises to be one of the biggest and best local talent shows to be given here for some time.

The show was directed by Dagmar Landberg. The cake walk, which is a feature of the show, will be presented to the tune of "Georgetown Camp Meeting" and will bring back as no other tune can, the old time days.

Mesdames George Seba, Trafford Watson, Ed Ehlert, C. E. Smiley, Madeline Stamps and Hazel Summers and Miss Edna Case and Miss Katherine Fitch will present ragtime and will dance for a prize cake, the audience to decide the winners.

Stanley Manser will act as inter-locutor, with Ed Toole, Tom Richardson, Mabel Slater, George Richardson, Madeline Stamps and R. Winter as end men.

Special dances, banjo players, bowery girls, Spanish serenaders, the "Two Black Crows," and "Miss California" are included in the program, while a deluxe dance promises to be one of the most hilarious numbers given.

Capacity houses are expected both tonight and tomorrow night as the ticket committee reports a large advance sale of tickets.

The show will open with a chorus by the entire company and a solo, "Nobody's Business," by Rastus. "Can't You Hear Me Calling, Caroline," will be sung by Mrs. W. J. Sutherland. "Hawaiian Melodies" will be given by the Dusky Trio and "Darktown Strutters Ball," by Bert Williams.

"The Sidewalks of New York" will be presented by "Dancing Solo" and "Hallelujah" by Arthur Deming. "Oh Lawdy," by Rastus and "Lindy Lou," by Mrs. Leon Des Laves. The Lions quartet will do some harmonizing and "Southern Melodies" are to be sung by "Joe and Tom" while the first part of the program will close with an ensemble number.

The Olio will open with "Joe and Tom" exhibiting some fancy steps and a medley of tunes by G. Huffman and "A Song of Spain" by Melva Fletcher with Spanish dances by Phyllis Stuckey and Francis Robinson. The "Two Black Crows" are to give some "Sense and Nonsense" and Earl Carroll and his dancing chorus will appear in "Highways are Happy Ways" with the soloist for this number, Dorothy Brehl.

"Black Joe" will give "Southern Melodies" and Jewel Ford and Dorothy Brent will give the dance de luxe. A cake walk specialty is that of T. Dahl, while the show will close with the grand cake walk and the awarding of the cake.

NOTED LAWYER TO SPEAK IN ORANGE

ORANGE, Oct. 23.—Dr. A. U. Michelson, formerly member of the cabinet of the Kaiser and noted criminal lawyer, will speak at the First Methodist church tonight. The speaker was converted to the Christian faith and he is speaking on such topics as "A Jewish Criminal Lawyer's Conversion to Christ," "The Jewish Passover" and "The Coming of the Messiah."

Last night the speaker was greeted by a large audience on his first appearance here and is expected that tonight an equally large crowd will hear his life story.

Dr. Michelson occupied the same position in the Kaiser's cabinet as the secretary of state fills in the president's cabinet in this country.

Change Date For Orange School Play

ORANGE, Oct. 23.—"Her Temporary Husband," the play to have been given tomorrow night at the Orange union high school, has been postponed until November 21. The change was made in order that the production, which is to be given by the drama class of the school, would not conflict with the minstrel show to be put on by the Orange Women's club this evening and tomorrow evening.

'CHILD IN HOME' TOPIC FOR P.-T. A.

ORANGE, Oct. 23.—The Maple avenue P.-T. A. met yesterday in the kindergarten room. Mrs. C. E. Short was the presiding officer. Mrs. Wilbur Woods assisted Miss Nina Jones, school nurse, with the two groups of mothers with children in the kindergarten to the third grade and those from the third grade to the fifth grade. Miss Jones gave talks on "Health Mentality" to each group and Mrs. Wood led in the discussions in each group.

Mothers of the fourth grade were the hostesses of the day, serving home made cake and coffee.

"The Child in the Home" will be given by Mrs. Percy Green at the November meeting. The December meeting will be "Dad's Night" and will be held in the evening with an address by J. P. Wilbur, Y. M. C. A. secretary of Orange.

ORANGE PERSONALS

ORANGE, Oct. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. George Wayne, 221 South Pixley street, entertained with a dinner recently. The deer was secured while Mr. Wayne was on a hunting trip in the San Bernardino mountains. The guests were immediate members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Hart Wayne, of Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Parker and children, Wayne and Lucille; Mrs. Isabelle Garland and son, Jack; Mr. and Mrs. Mania Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Frieden and Marvin Richards.

Mrs. G. A. Gates was a caller upon Mrs. Barker, mother of Charles Barker, who is convalescing from a recent illness at the home of her son, 139 North Harvard.

CONDITIONS IN EAST CITED BY LIONS SPEAKER

ORANGE, Oct. 23.—"California does not know distress nor has it known distress as the whole country has known it since the war," declared the Rev. M. L. Pierson, who was the principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Lions club yesterday. The Rev. Mr. Pierson spoke on "Business Confidence" and the talk was arranged as a part of Business Confidence week, which is being observed by Lions throughout the country. Ivan Swanger was program chairman and Dr. J. E. Riley presided.

The speaker, who has just returned from a trip through the middle west, said that in Detroit there were 100,000 men out of work and all through the territory he visited he saw factories closed.

"The reason for present conditions is entirely due to a lack of business confidence and not to a lack of money, as money is in hiding and the people in general are not awake to buying possibilities," he declared.

"Slogans are being adopted through the east such as 'Everybody buy something now,' in an effort to re-establish normal buying conditions."

"The world needs a true interpretation of the word 'service' and 10 civilizations have gone down, because of selfishness. Don't think that we have an impenetrable civilization there were feasts which must have been performed by machines of which we have no conception. Pillars of marble were moved long distances by machinery which we have never been able to duplicate."

"California has resources of all kinds, plenty of land, minerals, factories and agricultural products."

"One pessimist can undo the work of 10 optimists. The world responds more quickly to fear than to any other emotion and at the present time the people of the country as a whole are making more money than ever before, but they are not spending it."

"The salvation of the world lies in the service clubs in promoting business confidence."

Dr. Riley announced at the close of the talk that during the coming week all Lions are expected to call at the business places of fellow Lions and that a report of such visits would be made at the next meeting of the organization.

A number of members of the local Rotary club were guests of the Lions and an act was presented by members of the cast of the Women's club minstrel show. Songs were given by Lynwood Mitchell, a Negro boy.

U. S. Lentz of the Dinky Links presented the club with a figure of a golfer as a trophy for the recent miniature golf tournament which the Lions won, defeating the Rotarians. The Rotarians were presented with a consolation prize.

An announcement was made of the meeting of the county council of Lions which is to be held in Orange November 17. Ivan Swanger and Earl Phillips are the chairmen in charge of the program.

Visitors present were Dr. J. P. Crawford, C. H. Robinson, V. D. Johnson, Wilbur Woods, Henry Meyers, A. E. Hallman, C. W. Newton, F. E. Smith, Clyde Meadows, the Rev. B. B. McAulay, S. B. Edwards, C. C. Carpenter and Harry Hanson of Santa Ana.

OLIVE LEAGUE PROGRAM HELD THIS EVENING

OLIVE, Oct. 23.—In conjunction with the Lutheran hour being broadcast every Thursday evening over the Columbia network through station KHJ, the Walther league of St. Paul's Lutheran church has arranged a program for this evening to follow immediately after the broadcast. The program is being sponsored by the International Walther league, of which the Olive group is a member. At its convention in Cleveland last June, the Walther league pledged $50,000 for a series of 12 broadcasts to be given in conjunction with the weekly broadcasts of the Lutheran Laymen's league.

The speaker for the evening will be the Rev. Walter A. Meier, D. D., of Concordia seminary, St. Louis, Mo. Dr. Meier is professor of Biblical interpretation and also editor of the Walther League Messenger.

Following the radio service the following program will be given by members of the Olive league: Piano duet, Miss Rosa Brott and Miss Josephine Luchau; Song, group of little school girls under the direction of A. W. Schmid; guitar duet, Miss Helen Heinemann and Oscar Lieffers; vocal trio, Miss Florence Heim, Miss Josephine Luchau and Miss Rosa Brott; address, the Rev. E. H. Krelitz on "The Means of Communication in the Service of the Gospel." Several contests and refreshments will bring the evening to a close.

Everyone is invited to attend this program, which begins promptly at 7 o'clock this evening in the school hall of St. Paul's congregation.

Acids In Stomach Cause Indigestion

Create Sourness, Gas and Pain. How to Treat

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist some Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful of powder or four tablets in water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.—Adv.

Only BRUNSWICK has all these features...

The four devices described here are not mere gadgets intended to attract the fancy of a fickle public. They are serious, definite improvements in radio design of such importance that the new Brunswick has justly been termed, "The Radio of the Future."

Only Brunswick has all these features. Others may some day seek to incorporate these devices in their, as yet, unbuilt models, but when you buy a Brunswick you get them now!

Ask your nearest Brunswick dealer to show you these features. Ask him to let you get the "feel" of the Uni-Selector; the new experience of controlling tone in radio reception. Only in this way can you appreciate what Brunswick has brought to radio.

PHILCO BABY GRAND RADIO GAINS FAVOR

The new low priced Philco baby grands, the very latest radios produced by Philco, which made their first public bow here just a few weeks ago, have won enthusiastic praise from everyone who has heard them, according to the Turner Radio company, of Santa Ana.

The Philco baby grand is an all-electric, portable set. The handsome cabinet, 18 inches wide by 17 1/2 inches high, is of Gothic design and made of genuine walnut. The Philco baby grand console, 33 inches high and 19 inches wide, is trimmed with bird's eye maple and African zebra wood.

Mechanical features include: Seven tubes, (three screen grid); genuine electro-dynamic speaker built-in; double-tuned input circuit; push-pull amplification. These famous Philco features insure full size radio performance in the small space occupied by the baby grands, the Turner management declared.

Many people who have hesitated to invest in two sets can now afford the baby grands because of its small cost, it was explained.

"With dancing in the living room to the tune of radio, how wonderful to have the baby grand in mother's room where she can listen to some fine music. For that boy or girl at college, baby grand steps in with great performance at a price that will hardly make a father flinch. For the spare bedroom it is hospitality indeed to the guest. For the children's room it gives them a personal interest in the fine child programs of today. For the boudoir, the 'den,' the summer cottage, and as the gift supreme for all occasions Philco baby grands fill a long felt want," officials at the store said.

COMBINATION RADIO DEVICE AIDS VARIETY

When broadcast programs fail to fill the whims nowadays, there's always the combination radio and phonograph that is able to meet the situation, according to J. C. Horton, of the J. C. Horton Furniture company.

"Were program directors of broadcasting stations able to create perfect programs, there would be still a great portion of the population that wouldn't be suited for humanity just isn't made that way. No matter how fine or sensational a broadcast program, there will always be hundreds of thousands to whom it will be unsatisfactory," Horton said.

"However, during an evening, everybody will at least find one or two programs that will satisfy them. In the past, the problem has been to fill in the other portions of the evening with good music, and while radio manufacturers like Brunswick, with its Panatone with Radio, have offered combination instruments, there was always the necessity of changing records.

"The automatic combination of late has come into its own, and several prominent radio manufacturers are making the automatic combination that is radio with phonograph a definite part of their line.

An event that has been a topic of interested conversation and intense speculation for the past six months has finally materialized in the advance showing of the new Majestic electric refrigerator which is now being held in the display rooms of O. S. Peterson company at 423 West Fourth street, according to Jack Rose, local manager.

The new Majestic refrigerator will for the present time be produced in two models, one having a nominal capacity of five cubic feet of food storage space, the other a unit that will have seven cubic feet of food storage space.

Outstanding among the features immediately apparent is the fact that while the mechanism is above the food storage compartment, it is concealed beneath a flat top. The cabinet is unusual in that there has plainly been an attempt to build furniture beauty into the design. The vertical edges are beveled and the top has received the same treatment. The satin chromium latch and hinges show the influence of modern art and there is a temperature regulator escutcheon plate in harmony with them.

Asked for interesting facts on the history and development of his latest product, W. C. Grunow, president of the Majestic Household Utilities corporation, manufacturers of the new Majestic electric refrigerator, has outlined the high lights as follows:

"The refrigeration unit is the result of the mature experience of one man, C. E. Lipman's, life, supplemented by a corps of experts gathered together under H. E. Kranz, our vice president in charge of engineering, for one purpose, namely the construction of a commercially perfect refrigerating mechanism.

"The Majestic Refrigerator is the result of a careful study of all existing refrigerator designs, coupled with exhaustive research. It is constructed with an accuracy of workmanship unusual in any industry. It is, first of all, a quality product; in fact, it may more properly be described as a super-quality product, since in no case has any desirable feature been sacrificed to reduce cost of manufacture. We believe that we have, by taking advantage of the latest engineering developments and the most advanced manufacturing technique, produced a domestic refrigerator that represents the last word in present-day accomplishment."

Examination of either model shows that the cabinet is made entirely of steel, finished in white enamel, the food compartment being also of steel, coated with vitreous enamel. No hooks are used to support the shelves, these having been supplanted by rounded knobs that make for ease in cleaning. Insulation is ample to the point of extravagance, being a full three inches in thickness. A combination of fireboard and "Dry Zero" has been developed to give the temperatures in the food compartment excellent protection from temperature outside. On

Popular Program Of Records Will Be Heard Tonight

From 9 to 10 p. m. today KREG again will feature an all request popular record program. This entertainment, which proved to popular when it was inaugurated earlier in the week, will become a regular KREG feature and probably will be heard two or three times each week.

Lithium is the lightest metal known, but it is not produced commercially. Magnesium is the lightest metal produced in commercial quantities.

this point Majestic engineers point out that excess insulation secures economy of operation, just as it costs less to wear a heavy overcoat in very cold weather rather than to use a light one and then try to keep up one's temperature. Their theory is that where one is spending money to secure cold, one spends less on current if the outside heat can be effectively shut out.

Piles Go Quick

Piles are caused by congestion of blood in the lower bowels. Only an internal remedy can remove the cause. That's why salves and cutting fail. (There is no opposing Argument)

VOTE YES ON 4

The OBJECT of the Electric Railway Tax Equalization Amendment (Number Four on the ballot) is to reclassify for taxation purposes the electric railways of California as distinct from the steam railroads and to place the taxes of the electric railroads on an equality with taxes paid on common property and by the motor bus and stage companies. It is:

BASED on the California Tax Commission's findings that the electric railroads "bear a disproportionately large tax burden."

APPROVED unanimously by the Senate Committee on Revenue and Taxation and the Assembly Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

ADOPTED by the State Legislature for ratification by the voters.

At 4 o'clock Sugar will help give you new Vigor

Wise indeed is the business man or woman who in mid-afternoon munches a piece of candy or takes "time out" for a moment for a sweetened drink. Such foods with their refined sugar content can do wonders in nourishing and thereby reviving a work-fagged body.

SCIENTISTS tell us that refined sugar cannot be matched by any other food product for quickness in nourishing the system. Its value, therefore, as presented in cookies, candy, milk drinks, tea or coffee, should not be overlooked. A glass of water sweetened with sugar has a remarkable revivifying effect.

These foods and beverages are readily accessible to the great majority of people in business.

Extensive experiments among office workers have proved that a sweet of some sort eaten in mid-afternoon renews vigor in a most speedy, satisfactory way. The Sugar Institute.

Atlantic And Pacific Store To Open Here Tomorrow

TRAINED STAFF PREPARING TO GREET PATRONS

Employees, managers and supervisors of a great chain store organization are hard at work today getting all in readiness for the inaugural opening in Santa Ana of one of the finest branches of their stores. All is orderly activity at 416 West Fourth street where the great gold sign against a red background familiar to many housewives who formerly resided in the Middle West and East announces to the passerby the location of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company store in Santa Ana.

This store is scheduled to start service at 7:30 a. m. tomorrow. It is to be operated as a self service type complete food center, with meat, vegetable and grocery departments. All equipment is of latest design and construction and the great market is epic and spans throughout. A corps of workmen has been busy engaged in preparing the store room for the past several weeks.

Cannon Statement
The market is to be under the management of Arthur L. Cannon, who will be assisted by a trained staff of employees. In commenting on the opening of the store in Santa Ana, Cannon today issued the following statement:

"Since our organization was founded by George Huntington Hartford, 70 years ago, the slogan and guiding principle of every one of the more than 15,000 stores is 'where economy rules.' We are now operating in 36 states and two Canadian provinces and everywhere housewives are learning to depend on the A. & P. stores for high quality goods at low prices. We believe that Santa Ana is a fine city in which to be located and we look forward to a great reception."

Some idea of the magnitude of the organization behind the new Atlantic and Pacific store which is to open on West Fourth street tomorrow may be obtained from figures recently prepared by company statisticians showing the great amount of business that is transacted.

The stores first opened on the Pacific coast last May and have rapidly expanded from an initial start of nine stores until they now number in excess of 30. The stores have a patronage from more than 5,000,000 housewives daily in the entire chain, according to company officials.

In addition to the vast fleet of thousands of motor trucks which are used for short hauls of all sorts of foodstuffs, the company required 205,164 fully loaded freight cars last year, the equivalent of a train reaching half way across the continent, or a distance of 1550 miles. This means that the A. & P.'s own traffic experts must supervise the handling of 600 cars daily and many are the problems that these experts work out solely for the benefit of A. & P. patrons so that distributing costs may be reduced and food prices cut.

In addition to this immense volume of overland transportation the company shipped thousands of tons of foodstuffs by water including the movement of raw materials from its own buying corps in foreign countries.

A clearer idea of the enormous shipping volume which cost the A. & P. $26,000,000 last year in railroad expense alone, may be obtained from sales figures which show, for example, that 24,000,000 cans of salmon were sold over A. & P. counters in one year. Half of this volume, or 12,000,000 cans, came from the company's own fish canneries in Alaska.

The 15,000 A. & P. stores also sold 10,790,567 pounds of its own tea last year, including the famous Grandmother, Nectar, Bulk and Our Own tea, all special A. & P. blends, and 2,808,965 pounds of standard brands of tea, a total of 13,599,532 pounds. Probably the most amazing figures in this connection are those of coffee sales which reached the stupendous total of nearly 160,000,000 pounds last year. This volume is 12 per cent of all the coffee sold in the United States and 145,000,000 pounds of the total 160,000,000 were A. & P.'s own blends, bought by the company's own buyers in South America and roasted at the company's own plants in this country, including the popular Bokar, Red Circle and Eight o'Clock brands.

The need for such vast quantities

WAY TO STOP EPIDEMIC OF "ATHLETE'S FOOT" FOUND BY SPECIALISTS

With millions of people in the country today infected with "Athlete's Foot" germs, it is very probable that you may have this common ailment and not know why you have it, itching blisters between them. Perhaps the skin has become thick and moist, turned red or white in color, or even developed a scaly dryness.

If you notice any of these conditions, which are the common symptoms of this stealthy form of ringworm, take no chances on serious infection. Apply ABSORBINE JR. at once and freely, as recommended by authorities.

For after careful experiments with the disease, a famous New York laboratory found that this mild, soothing, yet powerful, antiseptic not only checks but actually kills the Trichophyton germs which cause "Athlete's Foot."

It is wise to use ABSORBINE JR. after every exposure to wet surfaces—in public places and even in your own bathroom. For the tiny germs breed and lurk simply everywhere, and are always ready to attack. At all drug stores, $1.25. W. F. Young, Inc., Springfield, Mass.

TO OPEN TOMORROW

The picture below shows the new home of the Atlantic and Pacific Tea company store in Santa Ana, on West Fourth street, as final preparations were being made for the opening of the new food market here tomorrow.

of foodstuffs is better understandable when it is realized that the A. & P. stores situated throughout the United States, in 36 states, and in two Canadian provinces, sell 5,000,000 market baskets daily. In one year housewives make 1,500,000,000 visits to A. & P. stores. It is as if the entire population of the United States, men, women and children, bought at these stores every three and a half weeks.

The company's own buyers and crop experts are on hand daily all over the world to see that only the choicest products reach A. & P. shelves. These buyers and the company's own plants last year sent 30,000 carloads of potatoes to A. & P. stores; 5,000,000 barrels of flour; 90,000,000 dozen eggs; 70,000 tons of coffee; 150,000,000 pounds of butter; 4,000,000 cases of evaporated milk and 7000 carloads of oranges. These are only a few of the popular commodities but the volume for each article illustrates the daily needs of A. & P. patrons.

Thirty-three A. & P. bakeries are turning out white bread, raisin bread, rye and whole wheat loaves, doughnuts and other bakery products in huge daily quantities. The popularity of the A. & P. Grandmother's bread is attested to by the production demands placed upon the company's bakeries, where almost 500,000,000 crisp and tasty loaves of this make of bread were turned out of A. & P. ovens last year. An average of 153,717 loaves of bread are sold every hour of the business day across A. & P. counters.

Butter Business Immense
Naturally it takes a lot of butter to spread the billions of slices of bread cut from those half a billion loaves. And the A. & P. is buying butter every day from creameries in the finest dairy sections of the country. In 1929 the company purchased 150,000,000 pounds of butter, or 60 per cent of this was in package form.

A herd of 70,000 dairy cattle in Wisconsin is needed to produce most of the milk sold by A. & P. stores in evaporated form. It required 144,000,000 cans of evaporated milk to supply the demands of A. & P. customers last year. The company's own plants, which have perfected condensed milk to an unmatched quality, supply this demand at the rate of two cans per second.

A train of tens of thousands of cars would result from the lumping into one shipment of all the potatoes, oranges, apples, lettuce, spinach, bananas, etc., bought by the A. & P.'s highly trained 200 buyers and inspectors last year.

About 8000 carloads of the famous California iceberg lettuce are sold annually by the A. & P.

COMMENTS ON LAUNCHING OF COAST STORES

Commenting upon the decision of his company to open a number of stores on the Pacific coast, John A. Hartford, president of the Great A. & P. Tea Co., recently issued the following statement:

"In opening stores in California the A. & P. organization feels entirely at home. For many years we have bought more of California's fruits and other products than any other single customer of that great state. In the past five years we have paid to California producers the great total of $145,000,000 for their products.

"It is commonly admitted that the retailer of today must be constantly on guard to always give the highest quality at the most attractive prices. Housewives shop with greater care than ever before, with those two factors—quality and price—indubitably impressed on their minds. Five million of them daily, and day after day, go into our stores for a reason. They spent more than $1,052,000,000 in our stores last year, and they did it because of the savings it meant them to trade in A. & P. stores.

"Methods of distribution of all merchandise, and of foods particularly, are changing rapidly. In this change there is always uppermost in the minds of executives of all great organizations the reduction of distribution costs, which so greatly affect the prices the ultimate consumer pays.

"A. & P. has succeeded in eliminating the maximum of multiple handling, which accounts in large degree for its ability to effect the economies it does and which it passes along to its customers. A. & P., furthermore, takes only a small profit of less than 21-2 cents per dollar of sales. Our very growth and our present move to the Pacific coast is irrefutable proof of this."

CUTTING WASTE ENABLES STORE TO AID PUBLIC

Perhaps no more striking instance of the utilization of the waste products in industry can be found than those practiced by the A. & P. warehouses throughout the country. It requires no imagination to realize that in a warehouse where vast quantities of vegetables and meats are handled daily there is bound to be a certain amount of waste material. Broken packing cases, torn or stained sacks, fragments of vegetables and spoiled fruits form but a small part of the material which, to all appearances, is of no value except to the junkman.

Yet this refuse is not only put to work but is also a distinct money-saving factor in the operating costs of the plant. Used as a fuel in a large incinerator, this waste has an actual dollar and cents value. It is burned to generate sufficient heat to produce all the hot water used in the warehouse—with the exception of the special needs of the laundry.

In a typical warehouse practically all the waste material which is fed to the incinerators comes from the upper floors. Certain employees are assigned to the task of collecting at regular intervals all waste that has been accumulated. This is then placed in a chute which carries it direct to the incinerator. The feeding utilizes the force of gravity and no other tending is required, as the furnaces work automatically.

An idea of the saving this means can be gained when it is stated that previous to the adoption of the incinerators certain of the garbage had to be carted away, involving the hiring of trucks and the payment of cartage costs. The incinerator has not only rendered such payments unnecessary, but turns the garbage and waste material from a liability to a distinct asset.

Such money-saving plans are typical of the operations of the A. & P. organization that strives constantly to decrease overhead and operating costs in order to pass on the savings to the ultimate consumer.

HUGE ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC ORGANIZATION CHOOSES BEST OF WORLD'S GOODS FOR SALE

To the ordinary observer the groceries, fruits, vegetables, meats and fish in an A. & P. store represent so much food and nothing else.

And yet, behind these products which are accessible to every housewife in her neighborhood A. & P. store, is a story of romance that strikingly substantiates the old saying that truth is stranger than fiction. For in the process of placing these foods on the shelves of the store, conveniently located in scores of communities, A. & P. buyers have traveled thousands upon thousands of miles; they have taken ship to far off Sicily and Brazil; they have chartered junks in India and China and Japan to examine the rice fields, and the tea plantations of those lands—all to the end that the housewife who buys at any one of the A. & P. stores in the United States may have the best merchandise that money can buy.

Through its foreign connections

A. & P. maintains daily contact with European market centers. This branch of the A. & P. organization has representatives who are experts on the sardine market in Norway and Sweden. When the Italian lemon crop is ripening A. & P. buyers are in a strategic position to secure the first grade fruits for distribution to its stores. The foreign representations also handle products from such widely scattered points as Japan from whence canned crabmeat is obtained and Hawaii, the world's pineapple center. A. & P. buyers keep in close touch with the conditions of the nut crop in France in order that Los Angeles households may have the best procurable varieties for regular household use.

A large buying organization is maintained by A. & P. in the vast South American coffee fields—both in Brazil and Colombia, A.

& P. is unique in this regard. It is the only coffee retail organization which maintains buyers in the actual coffee fields.

Direct contact is also maintained with the tea growers in India, where most of the world's tea is grown, and in Ceylon, Java and other tea producing countries.

Many Buyers
On this continent A. & P. buying offices are located in every important market center. In Los Angeles and San Francisco A. & P. representatives carefully study the California fruit crop. These men also purchase all the tuna fish which is sold in A. & P. stores. A New Orleans office keeps constant watch over the market conditions affecting the rice crops of the southern states. At New York—the central buying office of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company—reports are received daily from far-flung buying offices of the organization.

SAINTS MEET PASADENA TOMORROW

Heavyweights Top Big Ring Show At Delhi

PAPKE, FAMOUS OLD CHAMPION, GUEST TONIGHT

With another of those great old time champions—Billy Papke, this time—sitting in on proceedings as "guest of honor," Promoter Henry T. Foust and the Orange County 40 and 8 go to the post at their Delhi arena tonight with the best paper card they have shown since the club was reopened. Women will be admitted free again.

Gus Hiebe and Tim Charles, wild-swinging, rough and ready heavyweights who are always good for bristling action, headline the show. They are going to go ten rounds, as less, Matchmaker "Pop" Barrett says the winner will draw 75 per cent of the purse and the loser 25 per cent.

Papke will be at the ringside with his young son, Billy Jr., who is taking rapid strides forward as a middleweight and may do business with the Orange County Athletic club in a week or two. The elder Papke was one of the greatest fighters of all time. During his brilliant career he won 33 bouts while losing but eight. He was the only man ever to knock out the great Stanley Ketchel except Jack Johnson who outwitted Ketchel 50 pounds. When Papke kayoed Ketchel he won the middleweight bauble which he held until Ketchel took it away from him.

Charles, Hiebe in Rematch Charles and Hiebe, the main-eventers, collided at Delhi two weeks ago, offering one of the greatest club fights in the two-year history of Foust's organization. Benny Whitman was the referee of that he-man struggle and Whitman was wise enough to raise the hand of both men in token of a draw. Hiebe bounced Charles off the floor once but the Kentucky "Fat Boy" was up in a flash so the knockdown did not militate against him much.

Hiebe is a product of the amateur ranks. A big, strong fellow of fine build, he knocked out 11 of the 15 opponents as a semi-pro. He has found the going a little tougher in the pro division but his record is still studded with more victories than defeats, and the wrong side of his ledger is spoiled with very few knock-outs. "Bud" Baker stopped him at Wilmington recently but Hiebe claims that one was a mistake.

Charles came out here from the east a few months ago expecting to hit the "big time" in Los Angeles but the period of depression at the larger arenas has kept him toiling at smaller clubs. Promoter Foust gave him some work at his San Bernardino arena where Charles is the biggest drawing card. He has fought some topnotch heavies in the east and has enough ability and color to be working for bigger money than he possibly can expect to draw here.

Semi Has Much Class The semi-windup has fully as much class as the windup, and maybe more. Homer Gaines, an aggressive Mexican lightweight who gave Baby Sal Sorio a lacing at Ventura the other night, is paired with Joe Soldiver, a youngster from Los Angeles who surprised fistic followers by thumping the good Freddy Hawkins at Ontario two weeks ago. Gaines and Soldiver are booked for six rounds.

Battling Ortega and Joe Galvis, another set of lightweights, mix in the six-round special event. Ortega is well known to the Delhi clientele who watched him drop a close decision to Urban Hernandez recently after all but stopping the sturdy Placencia kid in the first round.

Galvis, alleged lightweight champion of the Philippine islands, was the sensation of last Friday's show at Hollywood. He decisively defeated Young Papke, one of Hollywood's "hot shots" who was being made into a card by careful match-making until Galvis got to him. Young Papke is not to be confused with Billy Papke Jr., who will be here with his daddy tonight. Young Papke is a brother of the great fighter of the Vernon four-round days, who used the same name, taking it from the great "guest" of tonight.

Two middleweight matches of four rounds each round out the program. Dan Hassett, San Bernardino, meets Tommy Thiel of Los Angeles in one of the spots. Clifford Carraway, Santa Ana, takes on DeWitt Martin in the other.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Cal Balducci, a light heavyweight fighter, lost his life in a preliminary bout with Larry Hogan, a Negro, at the Lenox Sporting club in Harlem last night.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA TROJANS OFF FOR STANFORD TONIGHT

Southern California's Trojans shove off for the Northland tonight. They will arrive at San Jose tomorrow morning and hide out at some country club there until just before game-time. Some of the mighty Trojans are shown below, left to right: Orv Mohler, the sensational sophomore quarterback; Pinckney, rated top backfield man; Coach Jones; Duffield, who took on a little weight over the winter, and Gaius Shaver, who is battling Jim Musick for halfback position. Lower row: Baker, guard, who ousted Capt. Nate Barrager, last year; Marger Aspit, halfback; Williamson, demon center, and Garrett Arbelbide, end.

ANAHEIM PLAYS ORANGE: TUSTIN MEETS PEPPERS

ORANGE LEAGUE STANDINGS
Orange	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
Anaheim	2	0	0	100.0
Brea-Olinda	1	0	0	100.0
Huntington Beach	1	1	0	.500
Tustin	0	1	0	.000
Excelsior	0	1	1	.000
Garden Grove	0	2	0	.000

They get right down to brass tacks in the Orange league tomorrow afternoon.

Orange and Anaheim undefeated and untied, go to the kickoff line at Orange while both at Tustin and Brea will be played important conference contests. Tustin meets Garden Grove. Brea-Olinda battles Excelsior. Huntington Beach draws a bye this week.

Reports from Orange today were to the effect that Coach Stewart White has lost the services of Harold Welty, his triple threat backfield ace who was injured in a scrimmage with Santa Ana early in the week.

Welty's absence, if any, will give Ben Carpenter's Colonists a better chance to take the measure of the powerful Panthers. Welty not only is a fine ball-carrier and passer but his kicking leaves nothing to be desired. In competition he repeatedly has booted around 50-yards.

Orange looked invincible in pre-season skirmishes with San Bernardino and Santa Ana and began the race an overwhelming favorite to retain its Orange league title. But the Panthers did not play unbeatable football against either Huntington Beach or Excelsior, and if their slovenly defensive work is not corrected they may run into a tartar in their own league, especially with Welty on the injured list.

The Tustin-Garden Grove set to at Tustin promises to be close and interesting. Unluckily against both Brea-Olinda and Anaheim in earlier struggles, Coach John Mitchell's Chilpeppers will be out to earn the breaks against Bill Cole's fast little Farmers who opened their season by drawing with Excelsior, 0-0.

The Excelsior-Brea affair at Brea pairs a couple of scrappy lines. This one is strictly a tossup, too.

Radio KREG to Broadcast Saint Contest

Radio Station KREG will broadcast for The Register a play-by-play description of the Santa Ana high school-Pasadena high school football game from Poly field here tomorrow afternoon.

KREG has broadcast several junior college contests this season but this will be the first high school game ever put on the air here.

Starting time will be 3 o'clock.

"Kernal" A. B. Berry will be at the microphone.

SANTA ANA 'CEES' PLAY BEACH SQUAD

By JACK PEGUES

Santa Ana high school's strong Class C lineup will be on the field today to meet the Huntington Beach Class C aggregation at Poly field.

A smashing, plunging backfield will start. It will include George Fisk, quarterback, and Harold Daley, fullback, while Appleby and Wild probably will hold down the halfback positions.

Coach Clyde Coult's line was seriously shaken up with temporary loss of Alfred Allen, guard, due to an injury received in the Wood-

COOK WORRIED OVER PASADENA GAME OUTLOOK

BY "SKY" DUNLAP

Football matters at Santa Ana junior college were far from satisfactory today and the prospect of a hard game with Pasadena Junior college at Pasadena Saturday has Coach Bill Cook perturbed.

Injuries have pestered the Dons the entire season and although most of the hurts are apparently healing, a few are persisting and making it doubtful if their owners will be able to perform against the Bulldogs. Taking the case of Clarence Hapes, giant plunging fullback who has been bothered with water on the knee, the man mountain may play and again he may not. He has been in suit regularly but favors his left leg and is not his old driving self.

Hopes was used in only two plays against Compton last week. Elmore Lord, first string halfback, is ailing with a bad ankle and may have to sit on the bench again. Whether Kiyoshi Shigekawa and Harold Rose, fullbacks, will play is problematical, although both are back in suit. Kermit McCoy is also bothered with a hurt foot.

Wayne Bartholomew, who has been afflicted with tricky knees for the past several

OLIVER ELEVEN HEAVY FAVORITE OVER BULLDOGS

Santa Ana's salubrious Saints pause in the midst of their football preparations tomorrow afternoon for one of the three conference games they play at home this season.

Pasadena, one of the local school's oldest athletic opponents, will invade the Parton street enclosure at 3 o'clock.

Although comparative scores indicate a fairly easy day for Coach "Tex" Oliver's joadiators who won their first two Coast Preparatory league starts in stride, the Saint coach hopes to have his well-tuned chorus ball the jack as it has in no other match this semester.

Santa Ana encounters San Diego at San Diego a week from Saturday and as that game will just about determine the league championship for 1930 the Saints must run through their formations in earnest against Pasadena, for it will be their last opportunity to test scoring plays with first class opposition the other side of their line.

Pasadena In Slump Its identity already completely lost in the so-called 6-4-4 educational plan, Pasadena high school has declined in football prestige correspondingly in recent years. The high school there is now termed Pasadena Junior college, lower division, and teams out of this institution represent only a shell of the powerful aggregations that used to take the "diron here in the days of "Tuffy" Conn, "Babe" Horrell, "Red" McAlphine and those hardy sons of the Crown city.

John Thurman, an All-American tackle at the University of Pennsylvania a few years ago, is Pasadena's lower division coach and he is having a tough time of it, not because of inability but because his material is limited in age, size and experience.

His squad started off the year by mugging a 31-0 practice game to Los Angeles high school. Then it was buried by the strong San Diego Hilltoppers, 31-7. Thurman's men registered considerable improvement last week, holding Fullerton to a 12 to 12 tie. Pasadena had the game well in hand until late in the last quarter when the Indians started a whirlwind attack that paid dividends.

Game Offers Comparison Consequently the affair here will give football followers means of

Cook Worried Over Injuries To Squad

weeks, is again in trim and showing well in practice. He bids fair to give Gene Olsen, Philip Martin and Curt McCoy some stiff opposition and should see plenty of action Saturday.

The fact that the Dons are due to play on a sawdust field at Pasadena is expected to slow down their offense. On Coach Cook's "power plays" where guards, fullbacks and everyone else pulls out to run interference, one slip is fatal and would throw the whole backfield out of gear. Slips are frequent on sawdust, especially as the Padres have practiced and played on turf all year. This will be the first game away from home for the Dons this season.

Pasadena, thought at the first of the season to be the "weak sister" of the league, is now rated as one of the strongest outfits in the conference. It was no accident that Fullerton was bowled over 6 to 0 in Pasadena's conference start last Saturday and previous games give the Bulldogs just as much advantage as the Dons. Santa Ana, Compton and Pasadena are all tied for the conference lead and the loser will have a hard time to resume the seat on top of the pile.

Nollie Felts, sophomore fullback sensation at Tulane University, is married and has a two-year-old son. Felts is a triple-threat back and weighs over 180 pounds.

SAINTS OPPOSE PASADENA HERE IN LEAGUE TILT

comparing Santa Ana with San Diego and Fullerton, two of its warmest rivals, although having played both these schools, Pasadena should be better prepared for stern competition than the Saints who paraded through a couple of "breathers" for a starter.

Coach Oliver may be depended on to use for the biggest part of the skirmish what he now rates his best football team, and that eleven may reasonably be expected to knock off its running plays faster and smoother than it has all year. Benefitted by a fine schedule, the Saints have been developing just about as their coach hoped and, unless they hit one of those mid-season slumps, figure to polish off the reserveless Bulldogs of Pasadena by two or three touchdowns, maybe more if they get the breaks. Pasadena has a hard running back in Olmstead, a hard-hitting fullback in Cotton and probably the best guard in the league in Captain Bill Ramsey but that about lets it out. The Bulldog line is light and inexperienced and Coach Thurman has no reserves on whom he can depend.

Al Reboin, the outstanding high school back in Southern California, will lead the Santa Ana attack as usual. From his quarterback station, the brilliant little captain runs, passes and kicks, figuring one way or another in every play the Saints employ. No team the Saints have met has made even a pretense of stopping the fast-moving Reboin and Pasadena does not look equal to the assignment either.

Harold Pangle, Hideo Higashi and "Porky" Bell probably will start in the backfield with Reboin although there is a possibility that Oliver may insert Max Wilson in Higashi's place so that Higashi can play end. "Red" Kidder also is a possibility at Bell's halfback post.

Pangle was Reboin's chief assistant at ball-packing last season but he has had little opportunity to show that ability yet this year. Maybe he will get a workout tomorrow. It is a cinch he will be needed at San Diego. Oliver has used Pangle at a blocking job all season and much of the team's success is due to the big boy for his ability at leading the interference.

Blower Has Competition "Toy" Blower, who looked like the best end in the conference at the end of last year but who has yet to strike the same stride, will be on one of the flanks most of the time tomorrow although Jimmy Daneri, who is always a threat to get loose on a forward pass because of his great speed, may start as he did at Compton last week. Either Higashi or "Gib" Melsinger will play the other end.

Lawrence Lutz and Joe Preininger, great improved football players, will get the call at tackle but Oliver has given no indication about his guards. Dallas Reichstein and Garth Olsen look like the starters to the grandstand coaches. Tom Beasley, Tom Cole and Iard Runyan are anything but outdistanced in the struggle for jobs, however, and all are likely to see service.

Roy Harvey is a cinch to open at center. This rugged snapper-back has proven himself a worthy success to Wayne Vance, Curt Youel, Chet Siegel and other fine centers of recent years here.

Jones Picks Squad For Stanford Game

Stanford game at Palo Alto Saturday.

Players chosen by the Trojan coach are: Ends—Arbelbide, Wilcox, Sparling, Clarke, Decker, Norris; tackles—Hall, Smith, R. Brown, Plachin, Armistead; guards—Baker, Shaw, Black, Gentry, Winfield, Jensen, Deranian; centers—Williamson, Hawkins, Whittier; quarters—Duffield, Mohler, Beatty, Maloney; halfbacks—Apsett, Pinkert, Kirkwood, Ham-mack, Mallory, Stephens, Tipton; Fullbacks—Musick, Shaver, E. Brown.

With a rooting section of 2700 men and women staging many new bleacher stunts and with a band of 165 musicians appearing in distinctive collegiate uniforms and offering a repertoire of unique stunts, Trojan students will add much to the color of the day when the Southern California and Stanford elevens meet.

According to Director Harold Roberts, the Trojan band with a singing unit of 40 men will go to Palo Alto in full force. Both collegiate and military uniforms will be displayed by the Trojan musicians, who are already famous for their sartorial brilliance, while a variety of new marching stunts will be staged between halves.

Tell King Phil Marvin will stage bleacher stunts of enormous design. One will feature a huge block "S" in honor of the Trojan rivals, while others will consist of a Trojan knight on a horse carrying a banner, and a player holding a football in the act of charging with the words "Go Troy" spelled alongside.

Bears Ready for Washington Game

bear that performed against St. Mary's, the Huskies are in for something near a trimming. On that day, California was good enough to whip a better team, as all later agreed.

Schaldach Fit

Indications are that the Bears will be most threatening when functioning around Henry Schaldach, the halfback find of the year. Schaldach, who kicks and passes as well as he runs, was good enough to attract attention against Santa Clara and Washington State, but he was the California offense in the St. Mary's game. Saved from the Olympic club debacle, he is rested and fit.

Whatever the outcome, fans of the Northwest should see a pretty private war between Schaldach and Merle Hufford.

Also, both teams should go into action with the sullen savagery of the defeated. Both are fresh from drubbings from old rivals. The fur should fly.

The Bears will arrive in Seattle tonight, where they will be quartered at the Olympic hotel. They will hold a short workout on the field Friday to accustom themselves to Jimmy Phelan's new turf.

row Wilson game, however, Cook has switched Gerald Adair from tackle, where he has been playing mediocre football, to Allen's position where he looks promising.

The starting line probably will include Clem and Korall, ends; Adair and White, guards; Maret and Krings, tackles, and Captain Bill Ickart at center.

FOOTBALL BRIEFS

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—Thirty-five Trojans will leave with Coach Howard Jones late today for Palo Alto, where the Stanford game will be held Saturday. The team will hide out near San Jose tonight. Jones expected to start Wilcox and Arbelbide at ends; Hall and Brown, tackles; Baker and Shaw, guards; Williamson, center; Apsett and Pinkert, halves; Duffield, quarter, and Musk, full. Mohler and Shaver will be held in reserve.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—Coach Eddie Keinholtz put the Occidental Tigers through a hard workout today before entraining tomorrow for the University of Arizona game at Phoenix. The Tigers lost to San Diego State last week, the first time the Arctics ever showed in front, but Keinholtz looks for his men to improve against Arizona.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—Lenny Bergdahl, varsity quarterback at U. C. L. A., is definitely out of the game with Caltech tomorrow because of a knee twisted during scrimmage.

Coach Bill Spaulding said today. Norman Duncan, fullback, was excused from practice today because of bruised shoulders but will start against the Engineers at Rose bowl, Spaulding said.

THROAT DOCTORS pick OLD GOLD

in Public Test of 4 Leading Cigarettes

By ROBERT RIPLEY, Himself

"Believe it or not... Here's real authority. Registered physicians, specializing in the care of the nose and throat! Doctors who see every day the ill-effects of cigarettes that are too harsh, too raw, too irritating to delicate membranes.

"I picked the Doctors as taste-testers because they naturally judge cigarettes for their throat-ease.

"This was to be a taste-test... but I knew every doctor would instinctively rate the four cigarettes on their smoothness and throat-comfort as well as their flavor.

"Believe it or not... these registered physicians, without knowing what brand they were choosing, picked OLD GOLD by the decisive ratio of 2 to 1.

"I'm getting used to amazing victories for OLD GOLD... but I'll admit this one would be hard to believe if I hadn't personally counted the votes. A Certified Public Accountant also audited the score."

DOCTORS MAKE TASTE-TEST! Here's the latest Ripley Cigarette test in action—New York Throat Specialists voted OLD GOLD best.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT... here's the Final Score!

"I certify that an audit of the complete and final results of the Ripley taste-test conducted with Throat Specialists gave OLD GOLD 50%, Brand X 25%; Brand Y 0% and Brand Z 25%." Signed, J. S. M. Goodloe, Certified Public Accountant. Left—Ripley Checking Score.

125 HEAR TALK AT YORBA LINDA ON 6-4-4 PLAN

YORBA LINDA, Oct. 23.—"We are all proud of our magnificent educational plant at Fullerton, but the time has come when another monument to education has to be built, and it seems as if it might be built, and it seems as if it might be built, and it seems as if it might be built," said A. V. McBride, La Habra, as he spoke to members of the Yorba Linda Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening. The dinner meeting was held in the Masonic hall with members of the O. E. S. serving, and was in celebration of the recovery of E. R. Walker, secretary of the chamber of commerce. The other speaker for the evening was W. D. Johnson, secretary of the Orange Chamber of Commerce. One hundred and twenty-five were present.

McBride was introduced by L. C. Janeway, of the Yorba Linda school board.

"One thing we all know," he said, "is that the present junior college plant is overcrowded. The high school owns the entire plant and could use it for their own purposes. There must be a change and there are two ways in which it may be done. One is to build a new junior college plant, the other is to build junior high schools and take 750 children out of the high school, keeping them in their home towns. This will make a great cut in attendance and will make transportation cheaper.

"Every grammar school has a certain amount invested in its plant and from statistics I have learned that a junior high school can be established at a cost of $400 per pupil while a junior college lay-out will cost $1000 per pupil. It includes the cost of a swimming pool and gymnasium. It would be cheaper for the union district to assist in building junior high schools in the communities where they are needed, and the 6-4-4 plan has been found successful where it is in operation, and the Superintendents' association when convening at Lake Tahoe endorsed it unreservedly."

Business was dispensed with and its place was taken by a musical program which featured two vocal solos by Robert Moll, Mrs. Moll accompanying him; two vocal solos by Mrs. J. Francis Adair, accompanied by Mrs. B. M. Selover; and two violin solos by L. J. Zimmerman, Mrs. Selover accompanying. A feature of the evening was the presentation to Mr. Walker of a huge basket of flowers by little Barbara Vernon.

Crowd Expected At San Clemente Dance Saturday

SAN CLEMENTE, Oct. 23.—The stage is set for the Halloween masked ball planned at the Social club Saturday night by the Men's club. G. S. Stearns, chairman in charge of the dance, says that a record crowd will be present. There will be refreshments and prizes for the best costumes.

WORK ON ROAD PROJECT WILL START FEB. 1

FULLERTON, Oct. 23.—Actual construction of the project opening and paving of West Commonwealth avenue from the west city limits of Fullerton to connect with Manchester avenue at Buena Park and the new procedure for the opening of Manchester from that point to connect with the highway at the Los Angeles county line will be started about February 1, it was announced at the meeting of the Fullerton Rotary club at noon yesterday in McFarland's cafe, when Supervisor William Schumacher declared that the plans and specifications for the work had been approved by the county supervisors and that the project is now assured.

George W. C. Baker, of Los Angeles, assured Rotarians that the work on the road will be started early in the spring on the long unit from Orange county into Los Angeles. He outlined the project and told of the connection which will link Orange County up with the great commercial artery.

Schumacher pointed out that the Century boulevard and the Imperial highway must also come to Orange county and are vital in its development. He declared that Commonwealth avenue must eventually be extended east through Fullerton to benefit neighbors in that direction, although it is impossible to state how soon that project will be undertaken.

Progress on other units of the Manchester-Firestone boulevard were told by Baker, who declared that eventually this highway will provide a main artery through the great metropolitan industrial district direct into Orange county as a region of homes for great throngs of workers in the factories of that section.

ARRANGE SERVICES OF ANAHEIM WOMAN

ANAHEIM, Oct. 23.—Funeral services for Elizabeth M. Gregg, 55, who passed away early yesterday morning at the family home at 310 North Clementine, will be held Friday at 10 a. m.

The deceased was the wife of William Gregg, well known citrus grower, who has been engaged in that business throughout Orange county since coming to California 32 years ago. The family has resided in Anaheim for the past eight years, formerly living at 720 Spurgeon street, Santa Ana.

Besides the husband, Mrs. Gregg leaves one daughter, Mrs. Herbert Oelke; one son, Vernon L. Gregg, both of Anaheim; one brother, Mead Henson, of Butte, Mont., and one sister, Mrs. May A. Cole, of San Francisco.

Christian Science funeral services will be held at the Backs, Terry and Campbell funeral chapel. Interment will be made in Forest Lawn Memorial park, Glendale.

CONSTITUTION DISCUSSED FOR NEWPORT CLUB

NEWPORT BEACH, Oct. 23.—The Rev. Father Lehane of the local parish was the principal speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Newport Harbor Yacht club at the Newport Harbor Yacht club Wednesday. He chose the first amendment to the Constitution of the United States for his subject, this article restraining congress from establishing a state church and from restricting the freedom of the press, of public speech and of religious belief.

The speaker said that like all liberties, the freedom guaranteed by the first amendment was often-times abused and cited the efforts of Communists to destroy both religious belief and organized government in the United States.

Lloyd Stearns, newly appointed executive of the Sea Scouts of Orange county, gave a brief address on the aims of the Sea Scout movement. He stated that considerable trouble had been experienced in maintaining the interest of boys between the ages of 15 and 16 of the same program which was satisfactory to boys of lesser years. The Sea Scout movement, by introducing more mature activities, Stearns said, was proving successful in holding the older boys. As the new Sea Scout troops are being organized in Orange county, old navy whale boats are being obtained which will be used by the various units on Newport bay.

Some future was created at the beginning of the club meeting when a uniformed police officer appeared with a warrant for Secretary Jack Twist. During the past two meetings, Twist had augmented to a considerable extent the club's charity fund by means of verses about the various members, who all paid a dollar each to prevent their reading, in each instance the offending verse being read by the secretary immediately the blackmail was paid. In view of the nature of Twist's crime the warrant was also written in rhyme. Police Judge Leonard, the club's judicial officer, fined the secretary the sum of one dollar for his offense.

AMENDMENT NO. 11 PLACENTIA TOPIC

PLACENTIA, Oct. 23.—Speaking under the auspices of the Automobile Club of Southern California and introduced by R. M. Seamans, of Fullerton, Ernest McGaffey addressed members of the Placentia Chamber of Commerce on amendment No. 11 on the November ballot.

"This measure gives regulatory powers to the state fish and game commission, and was drawn by Fred Wood of the state legislative council bureau," McGaffey said. "Our game is fast disappearing and unless action is taken immediately it will be too late to save it. The principal objection to the measure comes from commercial fishermen who have monopolized the sardines, food for game fish and convert them into fertilizer."

Corroborating McGaffey's statement, S. James Tuffrey told of seeing 37 seiners fishing off San Clemente island, and fishermen taking from the sea whole schools of tuna with several acres of nets.

Speakers on other measures were, E. M. Everett, No. 10; T. E. Pickorill, No. 19; Weston Smith, No. 25; Fred Tuffrey, No. 24; E. M. Everett, No. 1.

CONDUCT FUNERAL OF CHILD VICTIM OF CYANIDE FUMES

LA HABRA, Oct. 23.—Funeral services were conducted for little Maxie May Jenkins at the McAulay-Suters parlors yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. A. C. Earley, city clerk of La Habra, conducted the service. Interment was made at Loma Vista cemetery.

Death came when the child attempted to look into an empty cyanide barrel which had been open for several days and which was believed to be harmless, at the Cheney ranch on South Palm street east of La Habra. The child had been taken there by the father that he might watch after her as he mended tents for the H. Sanks fumigating company.

The child disappeared from his sight for only a minute while playing and the first signal of danger came to the father when the child screamed as she fell back from the empty container. First aid methods by the fumigators failed to revive her.

The mother of the child could not be notified of the child's death as she disappeared more than two months ago and has not been heard of since. Five brothers and the father survive.

SCHOOL HEAD MAY BUILD IN COUNTY

SAN CLEMENTE, Oct. 23.—Mrs. M. C. Lincoln, founder of the Rest Haven school, Los Angeles, is here with the idea of making San Clemente the future site of her educational institution. She has bought property and plans to build her home here. She is seeking acreage on which to establish her school.

"My school is a pattern school, being conducted along the most modern lines," says Mrs. Lincoln. "We take cognizance of the present trend of the world in planning our system. At no time will we take in more than 400 boys and girls. They will be taught to be self-supporting as well as gaining an education. I believe that in the future many schools will adopt our system."

NAME STAFF FOR SCHOOL YEAR BOOK

FULLERTON, Oct. 23.—Announcement of the staff for the annual yearly Torch publication for the present year was made today by Joe Cook, recently elected editor of the year book at the Fullerton junior college.

Berec Murphy was chosen assistant editor; John Neubauer, snap photographer; Jack Gibson, photography manager; Walt Taylor, assistant photography manager; Jessie Wilkes, organizations; Ruby Stanley, society; Malcolm Tuft, men's athletics; Marian Marsden, women's athletics, and Doris Redfern, snap mounter.

Plans for publication of the book were started immediately upon the election of Cook as editor and a new office has been provided.

Whisker Growing Students Appoint Inspector, Aides

FULLERTON, Oct. 23.—Adopting the name of "Prospectors," members of the club of bearded men at the Fullerton Junior college today announced rules by which the group of whisker growers will be governed.

The group organized as an effort to assist the grid team in its campaign this year and vowed not to shave until the Yellowjackets defeated the Santa Ana Dons in the annual Thanksgiving game, which will be played between the two teams here.

Additional officers of the group who were announced today included Frank Del Giorgio, treasurer; Max Goldman, inspector; John Nylén, constable; Dutch Kuenzli, sergeant - at - arms, and Jack McNeese and Bob Torrey, deputies. The purpose of these officers, it was explained, is to punish those "chickens" who desert the ranks of their comrades and use the razor prior to the turkey day game.

LEAGUE PLANS LAGUNA MEET FRIDAY NIGHT

LAGUNA BEACH, Oct. 23.—The keen interest manifested in the political campaigns in this county is expected to be crystallized at the meeting Friday evening at the school house of the Law Enforcement league of Orange county.

Though the league has espoused the cause of Logan Jackson, aspirant for the office of sheriff, and of Harry C. Westover, who seeks the office of district attorney, invitations have been mailed to Sam Jernigan, incumbent sheriff, and Sam Collins, deputy district attorney, who hopes to be advanced by the voters to the office of district attorney. Interest is somewhat heightened by the fact that Stuart Lucas and George Jeffrey, candidates for supervisor, are also asked to be present, though the league is not interested in this contest.

George E. Thompson will be chairman at the meeting, which is called for 7:30 o'clock. Each of the candidates will be allowed 10 minutes, equal advantage being given to those not endorsed by the league. The chief speaker will be J. Frank Burke, editor of the Santa Ana Register. It is anticipated that the school house will be crowded. This is the first meeting of this kind held here and is a part of the county-wide campaign being made by the league in the interests of Jackson and Westover.

Hold Funeral Of George Shear, 73

CYPRESS, Oct. 23.—Funeral services for George M. Shear, 73, who died Monday morning at the family home, corner of Hansen and Crescent roads, were held Wednesday.

Mr. Shear, a native of Michigan, is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lydia Shear; one daughter, Mrs. Grace Beebe, of Jackson, Mich., and one son, C. M. Shear, of Centralia; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The deceased had made his home on the ranch near Centralia for the past 19 years. Funeral services were held at the Backs, Terry and Campbell chapel in Anaheim. Burial was made in Loma Vista cemetery.

School Students Of Garden Grove Form Golf Club

GARDEN GROVE, Oct. 23.—A golf club is being organized at the high school by W. W. Wieman for all students who are interested in golf. The agricultural department is making a putting green for the members to use for practice on the northwest end of the football field.

DEATH CLAIMS ANAHEIM MAN: JASON B. ROOT

ANAHEIM, Oct. 23.—Anaheim and vicinity was saddened yesterday when Jason B. Root, 85, resident of this city for 20 years, succumbed to a heart attack at his home at 508 North Philadelphia street.

Although Mr. Root had suffered from heart trouble for many years and came before he had left his breakfast table. His son, W. H. Root, of Los Angeles, unaware of his father's condition, came to visit him a short time after his demise.

Mr. Root was a native of New York state and was for a number of years traveling salesman for the H. B. Heinz company of Pittsburgh, Pa.

He enlisted in the Civil war November 14, 1863 and served throughout its duration, serving with Company I of the Fourth Wisconsin Cavalry. He had the experience of serving with his father, who died during the conflict, and was finally discharged September 1, 1866.

He has been a member of the Masonic lodge for 87 years and of the Anaheim lodge since 1914. His more than 50 years of Masonry was recognized in January of this year when the local order presented him with a gold pin with impressive ceremonies.

Besides being prominent in Masonic circles Mr. Root had been active in Malvern Hill post, Grand Army of the Republic, Fullerton, of which he was past commander. Mr. Root's death reduces the

SAN CLEMENTE CONTINUES IN PARK SITE RACE

SAN CLEMENTE, Oct. 23.—H. Cotton and members of the syndicate who placed San Clemente on the market and who have submitted a site for a state park at San Clemente, have not withdrawn their offer. Furthermore, no member of the syndicate has been approached to either permanently or temporarily withdraw the offer from consideration of the state park commission or other interested parties, Cotton said after reading stories which quoted Tom Talbert, of Huntington Beach, as saying San Clemente had been approached to delay its proposition until settlement of the Huntington Beach site.

"On the contrary," Cotton said, "the report of the state park commission architect is now in the hands of the state commission and that site has been inspected by members of the Orange county planning commission who will offer their recommendations to the county supervisors when requested to do so. Mr. Talbert has not spoken with me or any one authorized to speak for San Clemente in regard to the site here."

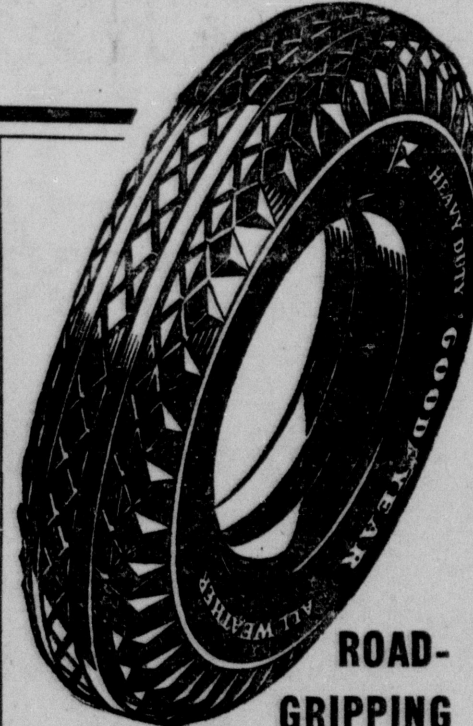

"Within the past few days I have read the report made by the state park commission architect, Mr. Shepard, which is most laudatory of the proposal."

Merchants Urged To Close Stores Armistice Day

LEGION PLEA ACTED UPON BY BUSINESS MEN

Recommendations that merchants in Santa Ana keep their places of business closed on Armistice day, Tuesday, November 11, are contained in a resolution adopted by the board of directors of the Business Men's association, inquiries at the organization's offices revealed today.

That action of the association was in response to representations submitted by members of the American Legion asking for the closing. Discussing the request of the veterans' organization, Earl R. Ruddy, secretary-manager of the Business Men's association, called attention to the fact that while the Santa Ana merchants have shown a desire to observe Armistice days as a holiday, no such recognition has been extended by the majority of business houses in Los Angeles and other large metropolitan centers, to the distinct disadvantage of Santa Ana concerns.

In presenting the problem confronting the merchants of the community, Ruddy stated that the sentiment had been made known each year to the various commanders of the local post of the Legion, requesting that the Legion concentrate its efforts on the metropolitan area, as Armistice day was said to be one of the greatest business days in the year in the large cities, and it was felt that those doing business in communities close to the metropolitan area were being placed under a very severe handicap if no progress had been made towards having Armistice day recognized as a closing holiday by the larger cities.

The resolution follows: "That this board of directors recommend to the merchants of Santa Ana the closing of all places of business on Armistice day this year, and further recommend to the incoming board of directors that all places of business close on Armistice day in 1931, in the expectation that by 1932 sufficient sentiment will be aroused among the merchants in the metropolitan area of Los Angeles for a complete closing on that day to relieve the handicap imposed on Orange county merchants, and in the further expectation that if this can not be done by 1932, then the merchants of Santa Ana be free to follow the recommendations of the board of directors then in office."

MINISTERS TOLD OF LEAGUE'S WORK

ANAHEIM, Oct. 23.—R. R. Lutes, secretary of the Law Enforcement league of Orange county, was the main speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Anaheim Ministerial association held at the Lighted Palm Inn yesterday, speaking before 14 of this city's ministers and prominent men, who endorsed wholeheartedly the work of the league as outlined by Mr. Lutes.

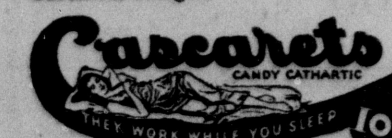

It was also decided at yesterday's meeting to hold the usual union Thanksgiving service at which time the Rev. J. A. Watson, pastor of the Free Methodist church, will deliver the sermon. It is the plan to hold the service in the First Christian church.

Present at the meeting were the Revs. V. C. Voll, H. L.

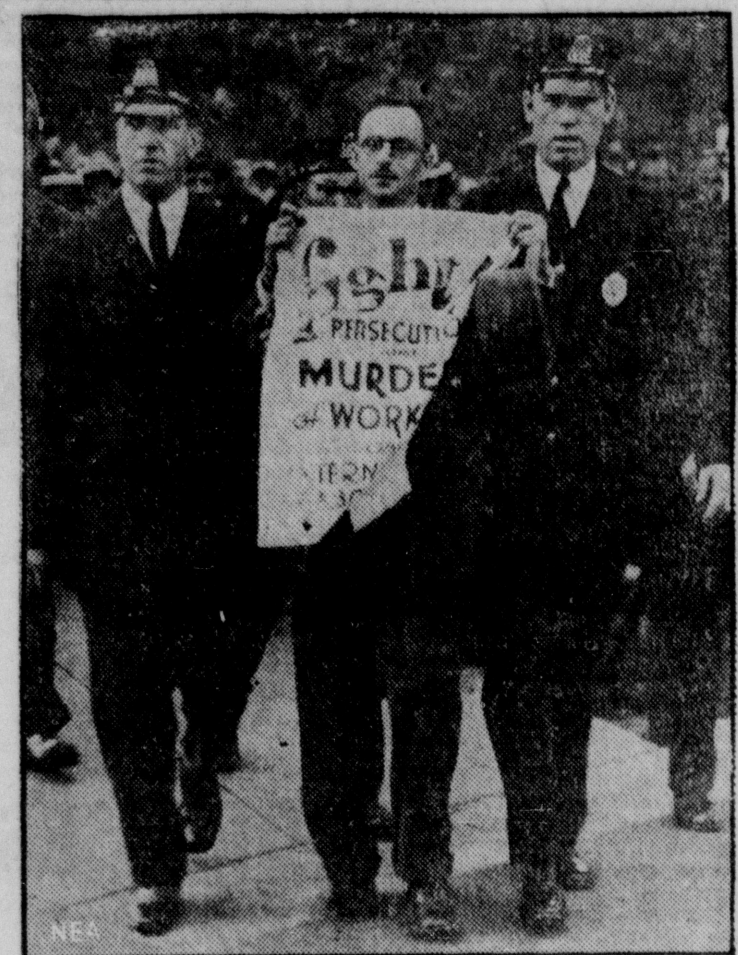

Tomorrow?

Here's a way to be rid of constipation and its ills—often overnight! A candy Cascaet at bedtime—tomorrow morning you're feeling fine. Breath is sweetened; tongue cleared; biliousness, headaches, dizziness, vanish. Repeat the treatment two or three nights to get every particle of the souring waste out of your system. See how appetite and energy return; how digestion improves. The action of Cascaets is sure, complete, helpful to everyone. They are made from cascara, which doctors agree actually strengthens bowel muscles. All drug stores have the handy boxes. Try Cascaets tonight.

SACCO-VANZETTI AGAIN

Boston police quickly broke up an attempt to hold an "outlaw" memorial meeting on the third anniversary of the execution of Nicola Sacco and Bartholomew Vanzetti, radicals, for murder. Israel Prager, chairman of the committee which sponsored the gathering, is shown below as he was arrested. Five thousand people had congregated on historic Boston Common in anticipation of riots.

VETERANS URGED TO FILE FOR LOAN

At an enthusiastic meeting of Jack Fisher chapter, Disabled American Veterans of the World war, held at the Legion hall last evening, support and co-operation of proposition No. 1 was again pledged and members urged to do all in their power to enlighten the public on this piece of legislation. It was stated that all veterans wishing to secure a home or farm loan should file their application immediately.

Frank J. Kelly was named chairman of the Armistice day committee to complete arrangements for participation in the parade to be held at Anaheim November 11. A large delegation will attend.

The next meeting will be November 12 at which time the chapter will meet jointly with the auxiliary to honor all Gold Star mothers of Orange county. This will be one of the high lights of the season.

Maywood Baptist Minister Called By Orange Church

ORANGE, Oct. 23.—The Rev. H. F. Sheerer was called as pastor of the First Baptist church at a meeting of the church members last night. The pastor has filled the pulpit here for the past two weeks and will preach at both services Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Sheerer formerly was pastor of the Maywood Baptist church. He is expected to move with his wife to this city some time in the near future. The new pastor succeeds the Rev. Charles Masten.

WHEN IT RAINS IT POURS

ORANGE COUNTY 7TH IN WEALTH IN CALIFORNIA

Orange county, which stands ninth in population among the 58 counties of California, now ranks seventh in wealth, with a grand total value of all property of $206,832,045.

This was disclosed in a compilation by State Controller Ray L. Riley, showing the valuation of all assessable property in the counties of the state.

For the first time in California history, the total of all property in the state exceeded the 10 billion-dollar mark," declared Riley. "The exact figure was $10,203,866,620.

"Only two counties showed property values in excess of a billion dollars. These were Los Angeles, with $4,514,261,968, and San Francisco, with $1,742,459,743."

In compiling his table, Riley took into account the total value of all real estate as returned by county assessors, the value of improvements on the real estate, personal property, money, solvent credits, stocks, bonds, notes, etc., the value of non-operative property assessed on the non-operative roll, together with the value of railroads assessed by the state board of equalization.

Following Los Angeles and San Francisco, the next eight "richest" counties in California were listed as follows:

Alameda	$602,733,625
San Diego	278,043,620
Kern	221,391,937
Fresno	211,437,014
Orange	206,832,045
Sacramento	178,394,240
Santa Barbara	160,908,377
San Joaquin	149,870,943

Alpine, smallest California county, ranked lowest in wealth, with a total property value of $901,053.

NEW PLAN FOR PRISONERS IS WORKING WELL

Commenting on the plan which he has recently inaugurated of letting prisoners who have families to support out of the county jail during working hours, to return for the rest of the time, Judge James L. Allen today declared that with one exception the plan was a great success and was working out satisfactorily.

The exception, according to the jurist, is that employers discharge these men as soon as they learn of the situation.

"This should not be the case," Judge Allen declared. "We are trying to help these men get back on their feet and make good after they have made a slip, and the employers should co-operate in the matter. The men are not felons, they have just committed a misdemeanor for which punishment is demanded, and are entitled to a chance to make good."

"I can't understand what difference it would make to a hawker operator, for instance, whether his employee were spending his spare time in the jail or at home. He probably has employed many other men who have served jail sentences at some time."

"The plan on a whole, however, is working out fine. There are now six or eight prisoners under the provisions which permit them to leave the jail in the morning for work and return at night and over the week ends, turning their earnings over to the probation department for use by their families. I hope that employers will co-operate to the fullest extent with the effort we are making to get these men back on their feet."

Parties Planned By Church Groups

PLACENTIA, Oct. 23.—Several parties are being planned by clubs and classes of Calvary church for the Halloween season. Wednesday evening 28 Eteri girls met for their regular dinner meeting and planned a party to be held November 7 at the home of Miss Mabel Smith, Olinda. A special Halloween dinner was planned for next Wednesday evening. Following the business session Miss Irene Hunter gave a lecture on "Trials in the Life of Sarah."

Twenty-three Gleaners met Tuesday with their leader, Miss Edith McVitt, for their usual study hour and they will have a Halloween party November 1 at the home of Dorothy and Betty Roddeck at Richfield. This is to be a costume party.

On Halloween evening, Mrs. George Jones will entertain her Sunday school class of girls and boys at her home near Anaheim.

SOLOISTS REHEARSE FOR LAGUNA OPERA

LAGUNA BEACH, Oct. 23.—The comic opera, "The Marriage of Nannette," which is to be produced sometime during the coming month, is expected by Miss Anna Pricella Risher, musical director of the Laguna Beach Little Symphony orchestra, to be ready on time.

Mrs. Hell Rider is director of dances and has been rehearsing her soloists, these being Leonora Tuttle, Ada Crosby and Stanley Newcomb. Halmar Forrester is to dance during Mrs. Crosby's solo. The chorus is also rehearsing dances for the various scenes, particularly the gypsy ones.

Stage action and dialogue is being directed by Charles Gilmore.

The first full concert of the Laguna Beach Little Symphony orchestra will be given November 1 in the school auditorium. The soloist is to be Florence Schofield Tozier, dramatic soprano, now a resident of Corona del Mar. She has had extensive experience, having sung with Sousa's band and many orchestra organizations. Miss Risher will be accompanist.

ASK OFFICIALS TO RECREATION MEET

Members of the city council, city planning commission and the Santa Ana board of education have been invited to attend a breakfast club dinner at St. Ann's inn at 8:30 o'clock tonight to hear a talk on community recreation and co-operation by Clyde Doyle, president of the Long Beach city playground commission. Doyle was present at the breakfast club session last week and delivered a wonderful address on the work that is being done in Long Beach.

A large attendance is expected at the dinner tonight to hear the address. An entertainer from Los Angeles has also been secured for a part on the program.

Court Notes

Anna F. Trushelm yesterday filed a divorce complaint against Earl M. Trushelm, charging cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Trushelm alleges that her husband on one occasion choked her and struck her with his fist and that on another occasion he caused an insanity proceeding to be started against her, and that on numerous occasions he cursed her and has told her he had no respect for her. She asks for a division of the community property, including a vegetable and trucking business at Costa Mesa. They were married in 1921 and have two children.

A suit asking a decree of quiet title was filed yesterday afternoon in superior court by Mary Lautenbach, et al, against George E. Harding, et al.

When a $70,000 fire destroyed St. James Roman Catholic church at Depew, N. Y., near Buffalo, only two statues survived—the Saviour on the Cross and the Virgin Mary. This picture shows the image of Christ, torn from the wall and covered with heavy debris, but undamaged. The two statues will be placed in the rebuilt church.

LOCAL MAN HEARS OF NEW OIL FIELD

Word received today from Watsonville by Rev. Paul Andres, pastor of the Federated Spiritual Science church, told of the prospect of a great oil field development in that community.

The letter was from the Rev. Mr. Andres' son-in-law, Steve Cardoza, and reported that several wells had already been brought in and that the town was full of trucks loaded with oil well equipment. The community is believed to be located over an oil field, Cardoza reported.

An illustration of the probable extent of the field is contained in a statement in the letter—"My father started to put down a water well, but had to quit when he had gone 13 feet because the gas was so strong." Cardoza declared that there was great excitement prevailing in Watsonville.

ENGINEERS OF LOCAL COLLEGE ARE INITIATED

Initiation ceremonies for seven new members of the Santa Ana high school Engineering club were performed last night when alumni and junior college members of the organization staged the affair at Irvine park.

Following a picnic supper, the pledges were given a rigorous series of rites. The new engineers are Joe Knox, Elwood Ritter, Jason Hodge, Roy Engle, Jack Scheel, Jack McFarlan and Stewart Wasson. Junior college students in charge of the event were Tom Cone, John "Sky" Dunlap, Charles Greenleaf, Ray Kohler, Harry Clayton, Kiyoshi Higashi, Chet Cook, Bill Hawk, George Berry and Harry Van Gorkum.

The club officials are completing plans for the Christmas vacation trip to Yosemite park and about 35 or 40 members are expected to make the trip. Charles C. Tibbets, faculty advisor, has arranged for reservations in the park and the entire club will make the trip by motor bus.

ANAHEIM MINISTER TO ADDRESS BOYS

ANAHEIM, Oct. 23.—The Rev. H. L. Thatcher, pastor of the Wesley Methodist church, South, Anaheim, will be the speaker tonight when the Pioneer roundup is held with a barbecue supper at Hillcrest park, Fullerton. He will speak on the subject of "Loyalty."

According to Conrad Jongeward, secretary of Y. M. C. A. work, awards will be made at this time to boys who have completed their outlined work.

Mr. and Mrs. Dungan Return From Their Honeymoon Trip

Rain had no power to dampen the enjoyment of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Dungan, 221 South Broadway, in the delightful northern trip which was concluded with their arrival last night in Santa Ana. But they had plenty of rain, especially from Seattle north into Vancouver, and again on the homeward way as far south as Bellingham, Wash., and really enjoyed the unique experience.

The trip was a honeymoon journey for Mr. and Mrs. Dungan, whose marriage on September 1 was a quiet event, but filled with interest for a host of friends. For both are well known in this city where they have made their homes for a number of years. Mrs. Dungan was Mrs. Lula Mary Lewis. Their marriage was an afternoon event in the First Christian church, with the Rev. Walter Scott Buchanan officiating. Mr. Dungan is a retired citrus grower and rancher, and prior to coming to California about 1905, was a major league baseball player of much fame, having played with the Milwaukee club in the Western league, with the famous White Sox of Chicago, and with the Memphis players of the Southern league.

They visited all the important cities and scenic points on their journey to Canada and return, making their final stop before Santa Ana and "home," at Stockton.

Dinner Party Was Event of Sunday

A charming dinner party of Sunday evening was that with Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Brown as hosts in their home at 819 Kilson drive. The table, prettily appointed, carried out a brilliant yellow motif with a bowl of chrysanthemums as a central figure. Slim tapers and nut cups were in the prevailing color. The evening was spent socially.

Those sharing the pleasant affair with Mr. and Mrs. Brown were Ronald Shearman, Mrs. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Chandler and daughter Evelyn, Mrs. Almiria Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Griffith of Hollywood.

Elaborate Plans Made For Halloween at Country Club

"Witches and warlocks, and long-billed creatures that fly up and down the creek singing 'wicky-wahoo' at night-time," will surely feel at home if they pause in their flying on Halloween, to survey the crowd at Santa Ana Country club, for a true witches' revel is being anticipated in that pleasant spot, as a fitting celebration of the season.

The annual hard-times costume party of the Country club has come to be accepted as the outstanding frolic of the year, for all formality is forgotten by the members, who don the oldest, quaintest, raggedest costumes obtainable, forget their personal cares and worries, and join wholeheartedly in the prevailing merriment.

Plans announced by Mr. and Mrs. P. T. McGilvray for the event, include an old-time supper menu, with country-fried chicken to be served at 7 o'clock with dance music to begin at 8 o'clock and continue throughout the festive evening. Accompanying pleasures will be the spookiest of decorations, an assortment of favors which will include noise-makers appropriate to the season, quantities of cider and brilliant red apples, and of course all manner of spooks, ghosts and jack o'lanterns.

Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes, and some unique disguises are anticipated, exceeding even those which caused such mirth and enjoyment last year, when the Halloween hard times dance was one of the most enjoyable of the Country club affairs.

Fifteenth Birthday Is Incentive For Dinner Party

The middle 'teens are very delightful years, especially when attainment of any particular birthday anniversary is celebrated with a gay little dinner, such as that which last night complimented Miss Maxine Gidcomb who yesterday was 15 years old.

Miss Maxine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Gidcomb, 1102 West Pine street, were hosts at the pretty affair, and Mrs. Edgar McGaffey and her daughters, the Misses Harriet Ann McGaffey and Catherine Benham, came from their home in Whittier to share the festivity.

Pink roses adorned the table where the delectable chicken dinner was served, and their counterparts were seen on the birthday cake with its 15 pink candles, which concluded the menu. Many pretty gifts fell to the fortunate lot of the happy young honoree.

Nobel Prize Award Was Discussed at Book Review

"The Magic Mountain" by Thomas Mann was discussed by Mrs. J. D. Watkins yesterday afternoon when members of the Second Book Review section of Ebbel society met in the clubhouse. The charming narrative is a Nobel prize winner, and Mrs. S. B. Marshall, program chairman, followed with an interesting talk on the amount of the prize, its origin and other details.

During the business session of the day, with Mrs. Dan Maloney in charge, the prize of $15 won by the section for presenting the second most artistic bouquet at the recent flower show was turned over to the treasury. It was announced that Mrs. E. M. Nealley will give the book review at the next session. Light refreshments were served at the conclusion of the afternoon. About 22 members were present.

College Press Club Plans Treasure Hunt

With a valuable prize hidden somewhere in the county, members of Santa Ana Junior College Press club will follow a selected route tonight in the annual treasure hunt which will conclude with an informal party in the home of Miss Audrey Teel in Garden Grove. The members will start from the college building at 7:30 p. m. and then proceed to the various posts, where a clever rhyme or sign will direct them to the next place. Dancing and cards will be enjoyed in the Teel residence.

About 30 are planning to search for the treasure. The committee in charge consists of "Sky" Dunlap, president, Miss Helen King, Ted Roth, Miss Margery Adams, Miss Audrey Teel and Paul Wright.

November Wedding Date Revealed at Pretty Bridge Party

Revealing the approaching wedding date of her daughter, Miss Ruth Morten to Ralph B. Reeve of Long Beach as November 9, Mrs. F. J. Morten was hostess to a group of bridge club members last night, entertaining in her home in Anaheim. Miss Morten has a host of friends in this city where she has been employed at the county library for some time.

Bridge was the diversion of the evening, and at a late hour Miss Dorothy Beckman was awarded an attractive prize for holding high score, Miss Pansy Oliphant for second high and Mrs. Genevieve Fisher was consoled.

The interesting news was revealed during the refreshment course which was served at a prettily appointed table centered with a bouquet combining tones of orange and deep russet. Sprays of autumn leaves lay at each place, and inscribed on the colorful representations of the present season was the engagement news. Slender tapers, too, added their colorful note to the occasion.

Those present other than Mrs. Morten and Miss Ruth Morten, were the Misses Mabel Pruitt, Monta Currie, Dorothy Beckman, Carol Erskine, Pansy Oliphant, Estelle Graham, Blanche Yokum, Billie Smith, Catherine McMullen, Mrs. Henrietta Moreland, Mrs. Genevieve Fisher, of this city, the Misses Helen and Elizabeth Reeve, sisters of the bride-groom elect, Mrs. Maynard Ladd and Mrs. Arta Utter, of Long Beach.

Damascus Shrine Will Give Halloween Party

With W. B. McConnell as general chairman, party plans of Damascus White Shrine are moving swiftly, and members are anticipating one of the merriest events of the Halloween season, to be held in K. P. hall on Thursday night, October 30.

Committees working under Mr. McConnell are arranging a full program and promise that there will not be one dull moment from the time the party opens at 8:30 o'clock, until the orchestra plays "Home Sweet Home," and Halloween is ended. The big assembly room will be given over to the dancers, while the smaller rooms will be reserved for bridge players and for the varied amusement features which will include fortune telling by a real medium; witches galore, refreshments, favors and noise-makers, and the merry games that have been associated with the season since time immemorial.

Tickets for the event may be obtained from any member of the White Shrine, and a large crowd is expected to enjoy the evening.

Charming Program Was Feature of Torosa Friendship Night

"Friendship" night was observed by Torosa Rebekahs last night when they met in the L. O. O. F. hall for a social affair, entertaining officers of district No. 50. Mrs. Edgar McGaffey of the Visel studios, was in charge of the program.

Little Miss Harriet Anne McGaffey sang two charming numbers in Colonial and Spanish costumes, and Miss Irene Brown followed with readings. Well-received were violin solos by Marion Nau, accompanied at the piano by his sister, Mary Henrietta Nau, Miss Emma Williams gave readings and Miss Catherine Benham favored with soprano solos. Especially clever was a marionette show presented by George Young.

Mrs. Claude Brown was chairman of the entertainment, and Mrs. Leotta Allen, of refreshments. Adjourning to the dining room, guests found Halloween well represented and enjoyed thoroughly the appetizing course which concluded a most delightful evening.

You and Your Friends

Mrs. W. W. Briney, 301 North Ross street, has as a house-guest her sister, Mrs. Young McCauley of Norwalk. She will remain here for some time while her husband is in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Brown, 819 Kilson drive, had as a recent guest, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Griffith of Hollywood.

Mrs. N. P. Heydon, 222 South Main street, has as house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ehle of Bellingham.

Mrs. George H. Dobson, 1069 West Fifth street, spent the past week in Los Angeles.

Recent guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Dohmer, 1312 South Sycamore street, were Mrs. Minnie Trombley and Russell Trombley of Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Claude H. Van Antwerp, 2204 North Broadway, has returned from a ten weeks' eastern trip and is again giving much of her time to the Van Antwerp store where she assists Mr. Van Antwerp in the management.

Mrs. Mary Jacques of San Diego, is a guest in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Alexander, of Newport road.

Ray Adkinson Spoke At Business Girls' Dinner Meeting

Declaring that "Modifying human nature is the great problem which confronts us today," Ray Adkinson was the speaker at the Wyecende Maegden meeting last evening in the Y. W. C. A. room. Continuing, he stated that good judgment will adjust the present semi-panic which the United States is experiencing. His was the second of a series of talks featuring the theme "Life as we find it today in a changing world."

Dinner was served at 6 o'clock, and was followed by a short business session with Miss Dorothy Dresser presiding. November 8 was set as the date for a week-end trip to Camp Emma Otis, the Y. W. C. A. camp, and it is expected that a number of girls will share the outing. Other business included the nomination of Miss Bett Wiswall as social chairman, and the appointment of several girls to act as a serving committee for the next month.

Miss Nancy Elder gave a brief discussion of budgets, and distributed a number of books for this purpose among the girls. For the next 13 weeks they will keep records of their daily expenditures. This, by the way, is in conjunction with the state office. Mr. Adkinson's address followed.

He discussed "Economics," and concluding his interesting address in which he considered today's business problems he stated that people must educate themselves to the little economic principles which when summed up will do away with panic.

Bridge Club Opened Season Yesterday In Brock Home

Holding their first meeting of the season yesterday, members of a bridge club met in the home of Mrs. Barney Brock at 1455 Orange avenue. Dessert as a prelude to the afternoon of cards was served at tables decked with goldenrod and black tapers.

Mrs. Vincent Croal scored high in the diversion of the afternoon, Mrs. Henry Hodges second and Miss Catherine Markel was consoled.

Those present, other than Mrs. Brock were Madeline Vincent Croal, Henry Hodges, Urban Engleman, Charles Maas, Oscar Schildmeyer, Nick Brock, Sidney Markel, A. Stewart, William Faulkner, A. Jamieson and Miss Catherine Markel.

Spohn is employed in a meat market in Norwalk, the accident occurring while he was at work.

Members of the Parent-Teacher association of Centralia grammar school entertained with a reception affair Friday in honor of the teachers and trustees of the school. The program opened with the children singing "America." Other features included were piano selections by Betty Marxon, piano selections by

Tacky Party Was Made Unique Hospitality Of Last Night

Inspired by the merry informality of the Halloween season, Mrs. Worth Alexander was hostess at an uniquely planned tacky party last evening, entertaining in her home in Tustin in honor of her husband's birthday anniversary. Guests arrived at the dinner hour, and shared in most tempting covered-dish menu, arranged on a table where newspapers served as dinner cloth, with a variety of boxes as chairs. Lonely indeed was one flickering candle which centered the table, directing its pale gleam to the autumn weeds which adorned the rooms, formed a striking contrast to the lovely dahlias and chrysanthemums in tones of bronze, yellow and rust. Bridge was the game of the evening, at the conclusion of which Mrs. R. P. Miers and Kenneth King were awarded prizes as high scorers.

Those present, other than Mr. and Mrs. Worth Alexander were Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Miers, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tournay, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McBay, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth King of Orange, Mrs. Mary Jacques of San Diego, and James and Raymond Alexander, young sons of the home.

Jaycee Co-eds Name Marian Parsons As President

Miss Marian Parsons was elected president of the Associated Woman Students of Santa Ana junior college as Miss Adaruth Ellis, president of last year, is not attending college here. Miss Juliette Taylor ran a close second in the race for presidency.

Delegates elected to attend the annual A. W. S. convention at Riverside Mission Inn on October 31 and November 1, are Miss Ruth Gardner and Miss Neva McDonald. Miss Margaret Wilson declined to go as a delegate as she found it impossible to attend. The president, Miss Parsons, will attend as ex-officio delegate.

An interesting program has been arranged for the entertainment of the representatives of the junior colleges. On Friday evening there will be a formal banquet and dance. On Saturday at the Riverside junior college Arthur G. Paul, director of the Riverside junior college, Dr. Agnes Faye Morgan, of the University of California, and Miss Mary Wallace Weir, of the Los Angeles Orthopedic hospital, will speak. Saturday afternoon there will be a luncheon and several one-act plays given for their entertainment. Following this will be a tea with which the convention will close.

The Women's Athletic association members will also hold their business meeting on November 1 at Riverside college.

Guessing Contests Were Featured at Party Of Yesterday

A charming party of yesterday afternoon was that with Mrs. John Vernon as hostess in her home at 2020 Santiago street. Although the affair was one of those delightful occasions inspired by a hospitable mood, with no special incentive, before the afternoon was half spent it was discovered that one of the guests, Mrs. Charles Coutts, was observing her birthday anniversary.

In a guessing contest of the afternoon Mrs. Oliver Halsell held high score and Mrs. Herbert Johnson, second high, each receiving a desirable award. Mrs. Coutts and Mrs. Jack E. Breakey shared consolation honors. For guessing the contents in My Ladies' Work Basket the most correctly, Mrs. Howard Breakey received an attractive gift while Mrs. Charles Halsell was consoled.

A tempting tea menu was served in mid-afternoon with an orange and black color scheme as the chosen motif. An orange luncheon cloth was spread over the table where a candle in the same hue and set in a black holder was a central figure. Bouquets of brilliant marigolds completed the artistic setting.

Those sharing Mrs. Vernon's hospitality were Mesdames Oliver L. Halsell, Charles Coutts, Jack Breakey, James W. Nuckolls, Herbert L. Johnson, Charles Halsell, H. C. Breakey and Miss Frances Nuckolls.

Fredda Sawtelle, Little Ellen Jane Peters two readings, Mrs. Verna Anderson, address of welcome, and the response by W. M. Carver, principal of the school; James Coughran, a piano solo; Wilda Green, two readings, and Mrs. George E. Kitchens Jr. of Anaheim, two piano selections.

After the program the evening was spent playing games, Pumpkin pie and coffee were served.

Mother and Daughter Continue Pleasant Party Series

Always noted for its hospitality and charm, the George Briggs home at 644 North Broadway, yesterday was doubly attractive to a group of luncheon guests, by reason of the many dahlias and chrysanthemums which nodded their royal heads from every possible spot where blossoms might be placed. Mrs. Briggs and her daughter Mrs. Howard Timmons, joined in presenting the smart party, and among the friends who showed their interest in the hospitality by that typically Californian gesture of sending flowers, were Mrs. Z. Bertrand West and Mrs. A. W. Griffith.

In selecting their decorative motif for the luncheon with which the afternoon of bridge was preceded, the hostesses adopted a Japanese effect reminiscent of Mrs. Briggs' summer tour of the Orient in company with her young daughter, Miss Janet Briggs, now back in her senior year at Stanford. Sprays of Jerusalem cherry with their glossy green leaves and quaint little Chinese lanterns of berries, centered each table, while place cards offered exotic bits of scenery with "ricksha and lantern carriers, graceful geisha girls, and other thing eloquent of the Orient. These were all hand-painted on a native wood cut to a wafer thinness, and had been brought from the Orient by Mrs. Briggs.

Mrs. Lester Tubbs assisted in various hostess duties. Mrs. Don Andrews and Mrs. H. T. Dunning made first and second high scores, and were presented with the pretty prizes selected by Mrs. Briggs and Mrs. Timmons to honorize with their prevailing decorative scheme. There were eight tables in play at yesterday's function, and at an earlier affair, given by the mother and daughter on Tuesday, nine tables were called into service. The same attractive table appointments were employed for the Tuesday luncheon, but the flowers used to adorn the spacious rooms were giant zinnias in all the fiery hues of autumn, sent by Mrs. Adam Zaiser.

Mrs. Earl Morrow loaned her assistance at the initial event, and prizes were taken by Mrs. Samuel Nau and Mrs. Joseph Metzger.

Mrs. Briggs and Mrs. Timmons have concluded their entertaining for the present, although they are planning something for the not-too-distant future to compliment some of their out-of-town friends.

"Home Gathering" Dinner Promises To Be Success

When members of the United Presbyterian church together with their families, gather in the church tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock for an old-fashioned home-gathering affair, it is expected they will share in a most successful evening. A pot-luck dinner will be served.

Hostesses for the dinner will be Mesdames William M. Smart, Frank Andrews, A. N. Cox, O. S. Johnston, E. H. Prince, W. R. McBurney, A. J. Smiley, John McCauley, Martin Warren, John McCadden, James T. Realt, Arthur McCadden, W. H. McPeak, W. W. Hoy, Herbert Walker and Miss Lula Finley.

A Room Any Girl Would Love

Yesterday I was telling you about the bedside table I made for a girl's room. Today I am going to tell you about the rest of the room, a room any girl would love for her own.

It is a small room facing north. Along one side is a set of four casement windows; below these windows the low green bed (single) is placed so that the occupant can star gaze to her romantic heart's content. Glazed chintz patterned with French Court scenes make the lined curtains which slip easily on rings. The same chintz is used for bed valance, and this valance is held in place this way:

A piece of muslin was cut to fit snugly over the bed spring, coral to the sides and bottom of this piece of cotton I sewed straight, bound pieces of the chintz—this way the ugly springs are covered up.

For a bed spread and bolster cover I used a heavy piece of coral sateen, 50 inches wide, hemmed and tucked neatly in at sides, top and bottom when the bed is made, yet sturdy enough to lounge on. An embroidered white felt rug, a chair, hanging book shelf, painted green, and a fascinating dressing table in coral with a mirror shaped like a half-pie completes this really lovely little room.

TODAY'S RECIPE

MOLASSES PIE

3 eggs, beaten separately
1-2 cup New Orleans molasses
1 cup white sugar
1 tablespoon butter
1 cup thick sour cream
1 teaspoon soda
Nutmeg for flavor
Pastry for one crust
This glorified custard pie was a favorite in Covered Wagon days, and today not one bit less delectable for all its hoary age. New Orleans molasses is the real black kind which we now buy in cans for making ginger bread; it came in those days in tremendous big barrels and formed for the child of that day a staple article of diet.

Reserve two eggs whites for making the meringue, beat the yolks with the sugar, add melted butter and thick sour cream and whip to mix well. Stir a scant teaspoon of soda into the molasses and let it foam well before adding it to the custard mixture. Taste and flavor to suit yourself with nutmeg. The one remaining egg white is beaten stiff and whipped in the last thing. The mixture is poured into a very hot oven to start baking, the heat reduced after five minutes and baking continued until the filling is cooked. Cool, cover with the meringue, brown, then chill before serving.

All pies, whether they are fruit or custard filled must be started to bake in a very hot oven to cook the bottom crust so that it will not have a chance to soak and become waterlogged and indigestible. This won't take over five minutes, the heat can then be reduced to suit the filling.

A sixth of this pie has calories totalling a little over 500, and practically all of them are the energy-fat-making type.

Calumpit Auxiliary

An important meeting of Calumpit auxiliary, U. S. W. V., was held Friday night in Knights of Columbus hall, where the department inspector, Mrs. Marie Bradley, of San Francisco, was entertained on her annual visit to the auxiliary. One candidate, Mrs. Marie Mears, was initiated, and the incidental floor work was highly commended by the inspector, who expressed herself as being more than pleased with the manner in which the auxiliary affairs are handled.

There were several department officers present to share the enjoyable evening, as well as visitors from other auxiliaries. Among the officers were Mrs. May Glaze, of Garden Grove, department historian; Mrs. Ida Blackman, of Long Beach, department guard, and Mrs. Laura Keyes, also of Long Beach, department press chairman.

Other special guests included Mesdames Joseph Zeyer of San Antonio, Tex.; Hannah Bentz, of Portland, Ore.; Florence Stauffer, of Santa Monica; Will Hanna, of Hollywood; Charles Crowell, Ella Kennedy, William L. Granger, Marian Marshall, all of Long Beach; Charles Hyatt, of Monterey; Lottie Hemmehach, Grace Hibbs, Roland Stambro, L. C. Watson, Grace Tremor and Miss Mary Watson, of Fullerton.

During the course of the evening, the president, Mrs. Elva Hunt, presented a beautiful bouquet to Mrs. Bradley, who found concealed among the blossoms, an envelope containing a gold piece, the gift of the auxiliary. Her talk of appreciation was a friendly response.

During the business session the auxiliary went on record as approving the purchase of the county fair grounds as a recreational and civic center.

The concluding feature of the evening was social in its nature, with members and guests invited to the banquet room where enjoyable refreshments were served at flower-adorned tables by a committee composed of Mesdames Elvira Kurtz, Rose Bauer, Laura DuBois and Cora Graham.

MOUSE CLUB TO SEE
"DUKE STEPS OUT"

Carrying out the new policy of showing all-talking pictures before the Santa Ana Mickey Mouse club, William Haines will be seen here Saturday in "The Duke Steps Out." It was announced today.

Fast comedy, a good plot makes the picture particularly alluring to children. The first all-talking picture for the kiddies was shown last week and was "Free and Easy" with Buster Keaton.

Aside from the picture this week, the club will see seven acts of vaudeville aside from the regular Mickey Mouse vaudeville which is shown every week and which is staged by members of the club themselves.

More than 800 children are expected to attend.

"MAYBE IT'S LOVE" OPENS HERE FRIDAY

A brand new college story, "Maybe It's Love," the Warner Bros. and Vitaphone production featuring Joe E. Brown, James Hall and Joan Bennett comes to the Fox-Broadway theater Friday for three days.

The Mark Canfield story is aided by the play and song writing trio, Sidney D. Mitchell, Archie Godtler and George W. Meyer, recently signed by this studio, and the adaptation is the work of Joseph Jackson.

The tremendous enthusiasm with which the public received the comic antics of Joe E. Brown in "Hold Everything" of special interest, James Hall, the popular juvenile, and Joan Bennett, have the romantic leads in the picture.

ELSIE FERGUSON IN NEW FILM IS HERE

Elsie Ferguson makes her return to the screen in her first talking picture role in "Scarlet Pages," the first National and Vitaphone drama current at the Fox West Coast theater.

A few years ago, Miss Ferguson was one of the leading actresses of silent films. During the past several years, she has been a prominent footlight star both in New York and other leading theatrical centers.

In "Scarlet Pages" Elsie Ferguson enacts a brilliant woman lawyer who takes the case of a girl charged with the murder of the man she believes to be her father. One of the most sensational screen trials is filmed and recorded in this dramatic story of a woman who sacrifices her career to save her daughter from disgrace.

Marian Nixon enacts the girl while the all star cast includes Grant Withers, John Halliday, Neely Edwards, DeWitt Jennings and others. Ray Enright directed "Scarlet Pages" which is based on the successful stage play by Samuel Shipman and John B. Hymer.

Aside from the feature is shown, "South Seas," intimate views of the lives, habits and traditions of the wild San Blas Indians. The picture, a remarkable study was taken on the islands of the Gulf of San Blas by former Gov. Gifford Pinchot, of Pennsylvania.

There is only one negro member of the U. S. Congress. He is Oscar De Priest, Republican, from Chicago.

"MATRIMONIAL BED" ENDS RUN TONIGHT

What seems to the writer to be the most amusing French farce in years is "The Matrimonial Bed" which roused last night's audience at Walker's State theater to such continuous and spontaneous laughter.

"The Matrimonial Bed" gives a unique twist to the ancient story of the absentee husband who returns after things have changed. Everybody knows "Rip Van Winkle" and "Enoch Arden"—the first a mingling of tears and laughter, the second frankly a matter for tears. The story in hand, however, is all gayety, except for a few moments at the end when a note of seriousness enters like an intruder.

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN — PICTURES BY KNICK
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

"Twas chocolate candy Clowny bought. The Travel Man soon said, 'You ought to be real careful or you'll get the chocolate on your clothes. You realize, as like as not, that it would make an awful spot. If anyone does such a thing, he's careless, goodness knows!'"

They all sat eating for a while and then one girl began to smile. "Oh, look!" she cried. "Poor Clowny's smeared his face from cheek to cheek. His chocolate's melted here and there. In fact, he's smeared it everywhere." Poor Clowny was so taken back he simply couldn't speak.

Instead, he brought his handkerchief out to clean his smudged-up face, no doubt. But Scouty stopped him suddenly. "That's not the thing to do," he shouted. "Try and use your head. You ought to wash your face, instead. Why, if you use your handkerchief, that will be all chocolate, too."

Then one wee girl said, "Come with me. A fountain's right near by and, gee, it won't take but a minute, till your face will be real clean." So, Clowny to the fountain ran. Said he, "I'll do the best I can." The others laughed to see him wash. It was a funny scene.

The bunch then heard the wee girls say, "Well, we must travel on our way. Good-bye, you friendly Tinymites. We're glad we met you all." And then the girls went down the street. Said Copy, "My, but they were sweet!" And Clowny waved so hard at them he almost took a fall.

"Oh, look!" cried Scouty. "There's a stand that's full of fruit and it looks grand. I'd like to eat a little bit. We've little time to lose. The stand is closing for the day. Pick what you like and I will pay." The Tines found so much good fruit, 'twas really hard to choose.

(The Tinymites see a cork tree in the next story.)

Missing Letter Links

RULES

1.—In playing golf on the Missing Letter Links the object is to change one word to another in a given number of strokes which is par. For example, to go from TEE to PIN in three strokes sounds hard but isn't: TEE-TIE-PIE-PIN. It's probably more difficult on a real course.

2. Change but one letter at a time and be sure the word you have used is one in good usage.

3. The order of the letters can not be changed.

BOLSA

BOLSA, Oct. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Radford, of Huntington Beach, joined a family party Sunday evening at the home of J. D. Shutt, where Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Johnson, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. Radford, were visitors from Newport Beach, and son, Tom Radford and wife, Miss Lucille Radford and J. D. Shutt completed the party.

The marriage of Mr. Radford, who has resided in Bolsa for a number of years, and Mrs. Dora Caldwell, of Los Angeles, occurred two weeks ago in Los Angeles at the home of Mr. Radford's brother, E. H. Radford. Mr. Radford is connected with the Associated Oil company at Huntington Beach and he and his bride are now making their home in that city.

Ralph Ross left Monday afternoon for the Walker cattle ranch at Los Molinas, taking 21 calves from the local Walker dairy ranch. Mr. Gill accompanied Ross on the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harding were among the guests invited to a birthday anniversary party given Tuesday evening for Mrs. Harding's mother, Mrs. E. S. Hill, in Santa Ana.

Mrs. Martin Shiffer returned Monday from Utah, where she made an extended visit with her children. Mrs. Shiffer has been ill since her return.

Guas Ward, in company with Dr. Charles Price, of Santa Ana, left Saturday for Utah, where they will hunt deer.

Miss Bernice Wells, of Huntington Park, was a week end guest of Miss Margaret Gardner.

Miss Josephine Mon, of Brea, has been spending a week as the guest of Mrs. George Pyden, Miss Helene Hickman and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bryan, of Bellflower, were Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Farnsworth. Mrs. Bryan before her marriage, was Miss Etta Hanley, formerly of Bolsa.

Mrs. Stella Farnsworth, Mrs. Dora Ward and Mrs. Mary Howard attended a card party in Garden Grove Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Gilbert Trudeau entertained as Sunday guests in her home, her mother and sister from Los Angeles.

Miss Hill and Miss Haas, teachers, who occupy one of the Louis Bauer houses, spent the week end in San Diego, motoring there on Saturday and returning Sunday.

Frank Walker, who for the past eight weeks has been near Red Bluff deer hunting and fishing in company with a party of eight men, members of the same hunting club, returned home this week.

The supervisors of the county are making an attempt to make a through road of the Bushard road to Bolsa boulevard. The road passes directly north and south through Talbert and the right-of-way ceases within a mile of the Bolsa boulevard.

Deeds were received Monday by Earl Gardner, one of the land owners through whose property the right-of-way of the proposed extension would have to go, and he is now interviewing the other owners and securing signatures to the deeds.

Those owning land in the intervening mile are Gardner, John Warren, Ralph Ross, Mrs. Daisy Klenck. The right-of-way needed is 60 feet in width and 40 feet of this would be improved at once if signatures necessary are obtained.

Local land owners have again been receiving letters from royalty brokers offering leases for the purpose of putting down a test oil well in this section. As no rental has so far been offered, interest in their proposition is rather lax.

It has been some time since any oil excitement had been felt here. The 40 acres belonging to the Wright estate and located south adjoining the George Harding property, has been taken over by Japanese and strawberries are to be planted.

The 40 acres which has not been under cultivation since the flood of 1916, which completely covered it, had grown to willows and these have all been grubbed out by the new tenants who have now completed this work and have the land plowed. Houses have been erected by the Japanese who brought the lumber from the last ranch rented by them.

Three events are scheduled for the Bolsa clubhouses before Halloween. A card party is to be given by the club auxiliary on the evening of October 30. The Silver Acres club has spoken for the clubhouse for next Tuesday evening, when they will give a Halloween party and on Halloween night Mrs. Steve Elzey, of Santa Ana, formerly of this place, has secured the clubhouse for a private party which she is giving for Santa Ana friends.

New curtains are being put into the clubhouse by Mrs. Dora Ward and Mrs. Stella Farnsworth, who are on the board of directors of the Bolsa club. Extensive improvements are planned for the clubhouse as soon as the incorporation papers are received.

Norman Post, local garage and service station proprietor, had his car wrecked in a collision on Ball road Sunday but was not hurt himself. A Japanese was driving the other car which figured in the accident.

John King, who some time ago purchased the John Schullif house and lot adjoining the garage property on Bolsa boulevard, has torn down the old barn which was on the property and is using the lumber to enlarge his garage and is adding a wash room on the rear.

BUENA PARK

BUENA PARK, Oct. 23.—M. M. Allen returned Monday from a several days' motor trip to San Francisco.

His mother, Mrs. E. E. Allen, visited relatives in San Bernardino during his absence.

Miss Dorothy Salter was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jo Turner, of Long Beach, over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Newman and daughters were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hysel, of Long Beach, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Phillips and daughter, Helen, of Inglewood, were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Phillips' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin D. Coger, of Homewood avenue.

Mrs. L. A. Fry has returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Parker, of Hemet. The Parker and Fry families were friends in Minnesota before coming to California.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Corey celebrated their 38th wedding anniversary Sunday with a dinner given in their honor at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sanbury, of West Ninth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. James Kilgore called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Caryll E. Snyder, on East Eleventh street, Saturday evening, and reminded Mr. Snyder of his birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Hopkins, of Newport Beach, were visitors in Buena Park Monday.

Mrs. C. V. Black and son, Jack, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Nelson in their home in Carbon canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Hollowell and children, Paul and Rosalie, were guests at a family reunion and dinner held in the home of Mrs. Hollowell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nellis, in Southgate Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Andrews, of Walnut street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a baby girl Monday morning. The new daughter has been named Joan Elizabeth.

Mrs. Edwin Martin and Mr. and Mrs. James Naylor and daughters, Adah, Jean and Frances, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Mungers, of Los Angeles, Sunday.

Mrs. Margaret Strain and Miss Mabel Royer were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Strain, of Anaheim, over the week end.

Several members of the Buena Park W. C. T. U. met in the home of Mrs. F. P. Stultz on Highland avenue Tuesday and made clothes and bedding for needy families in the community. A delicious pot-luck luncheon was served at the noon hour, Mrs. C. E. Crumrine assisting the hostess in serving.

Among those present were Mrs. R. Rittenhouse, Mrs. C. W. Pulling, Mrs. G. W. Corey, Mrs. Jesse Gill, Mrs. C. E. Reid, Mrs. A. E. Bean, Mrs. L. J. Lee, Mrs. Mar-Bean, Mrs. Strain, Mrs. C. H. Brown, Mrs. J. B. Robinson, Mrs. L. A. Newman, Mrs. C. E. Crumrine and Mrs. Stultz.

The L. & S. Ladies' Bible class of the Buena Park Congregational Sunday school will entertain their husbands and friends with a birthday party in the social hall Friday evening, starting with a 6:30 o'clock pot-luck dinner.

Dr. K. H. Sutherland of the county health department will speak on "The Child's Health" at the October meeting of the Grand avenue P. T. A. Thursday evening in the school auditorium.

The kindergarten children will give a health play.

LAGUNA BEACH

LAGUNA BEACH, Oct. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pickering, of Pasadena, who recently purchased the Buell home in Three Arches, entertained over Saturday and Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wheaton and son, James, of Hemet.

Mrs. E. B. Moseley has with her for the winter months, her mother, Mrs. N. J. Clemon, of Moberley, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lockwood returned to Los Angeles the first of the week after spending a week here landscaping, grading and placing their garden wall on a line. The Lockwoods entertained for two days Mr. and Mrs. J. Schroeder, of Beverly Hills.

C. E. Misner, who will celebrate his 72nd birthday December 24, has personally completed the work of digging a cistern, 12 feet deep by 8 in circumference, on his Three Arches place, of which he feels justly proud.

N. O. Dale and son and Hal Cole put in the cement work. Mr. Misner recalls too, with considerable pride, that in another year, on September 28, he with Mrs. Misner will celebrate their golden wedding day.

Mrs. M. Whitfield, who is opening a boarding and rooming house at 378 Cliff Drive, had as visitors Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hill, of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Whitfield has refused to let the building occupied by the Boys' school. She has followed this line of business in Los Angeles before coming here.

Mrs. P. C. Patchell has been making frequent trips to the Santa Ana Valley hospital in Santa Ana, where her husband, the Rev. P. C. Patchell has recently undergone a serious operation. She reports that he is recovering nicely. Antony Anderson, art critic and writer, a near neighbor of Mr. Patchell, is in the same hospital for a similar operation.

Legal Notice

NOTICE OF FILING ASSESSMENT FOR THE WORK OF IMPROVEMENT ON SOUTH SHELTON STREET, PROVIDED FOR BY RESOLUTION OF INTENTION NO. 2201, PASSED JUNE 2ND, 1930, AND OF THE TIME OF HEARING AS SAID WORK AND SAID ASSESSMENT.

The undersigned, the City Clerk of the City of Santa Ana, State of California, hereby gives notice that on the 22nd day of October, 1930, the Superintendent of Streets of said City having made an assessment to cover the sum due for the work performed and specified in the contract made under proceedings for the improvement of South Shelton Street, initiated by Resolution of Intention No. 2201, passed June 2nd, 1930, filed the same with me.

I hereby fix November 10th, 1930, at the hour of 7:30 o'clock p. m. as the time, and the Council Chamber of the City Hall of said City, as the place where and when all persons interested in the work done thereunder or in the said assessment will be heard by the City Council.

This notice will also be published by the undersigned twice in the Santa Ana Daily Evening Register, a newspaper published in said City. The owners, contractor or his assigns, all other persons interested in the said work or in the said assessment feeling aggrieved by any act or determination of the Superintendent of Streets or the City Engineer in relation thereto, or who claim that the work has not been performed according to contract in good and substantial manner, or who claim that any portion of the assessment or diagram or other act, determination or proceeding of the Superintendent of Streets or City Engineer shall prior to the day fixed for the hearing upon the assessment appeal to the City Council by briefly stating in writing the grounds of appeal.

For a description of the said work, reference is hereby made to the above mentioned Resolution No. 2201. (Seal) E. L. VEGELY, Clerk of the City of Santa Ana and the City Council thereof.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC WORK. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN: That the City Council of the City of Santa Ana, on the 14th day of October, 1930, passed Resolution of Intention No. 2248 to order the following work and improvement in the City of Santa Ana, to-wit:

To close up, vacate and abandon Florence Avenue, dedicated for street purposes, particularly described as follows: to-wit:

Florence Avenue, for its entire length, lying between Fruit Street and Washington Avenue (formerly known as and called Thirteenth Street) as shown on Dean's Addition to the Town of Santa Ana, recorded in Miscellaneous Records, Book 22, Page 100, Records of Los Angeles County, California.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN: That any person interested objecting to the said work or improvement, or to the extent of the lands to be affected or benefited by said work, or improvement, and to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, may make written objections to the same within ten (10) days after the expiration of the time of the publication of this notice, which publication will expire on the 25th day of October, 1930, which objections shall be delivered to the Clerk of the City Council of the City of Santa Ana.

Reference is hereby made to Resolution of Intention No. 2248, which is dated the 14th day of October, 1930, for further particulars, which Resolution is on file in the Office of the Clerk of the City of Santa Ana.

Dated October 15, 1930. CLYDE L. JENKIN, Street Superintendent.

EVENING SALUTATION

Righteousness is at the bottom of all things.

—PHILLIPS BROOKS.

IN THE END WILL HELP THE PARTY

The Register has on one or two occasions emphasized the obligation of those who believe strongly in the principles represented by the Eighteenth Amendment and law enforcement, to support the Democratic candidate for governor, Milton K. Young. We have emphasized this in spite of the fact that we have always been associated with, and still acknowledge our fealty to, the Republican party. A light or trivial reason would not induce us to cut an important candidate from our party ticket and vote for another man on another party ticket for the same office. Only one other man in our whole editorial history have we been compelled to refuse to support as a Republican who was a candidate for such an important office as governor.

The paramount issue before the voters of this country just at this time is the one finding its expression in the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act, and their enforcement. It makes no difference whether you are in Massachusetts or Maryland, New York or California, the forces are lining up on the one side endeavoring to break down public sentiment which supported and obtained the enactment of the law, and on the other hand supporting that sentiment and the candidates who favor it. All other questions are sunk in to insignificance. The disrespect for law in this country, it is recognized, is imperiling our free institutions, our property and our personal security. To permit by our vote repudiation of law and the Constitution at any point is virtually to surrender at all points.

The issue in California has been clearly made for us. Mr. Rolph, of San Francisco, for more than two decades has, as chief executive of that city, administered his office as one of the outstanding "wets" of this country. His personal habits and convictions harmonize with his public administration of the law. The party at the state convention made no utterances on the issue and, of course, the candidate for governor needed to make none.

Milton K. Young, candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket, introduced, fought for and obtained a law enforcement plank in the Democratic platform, pledged himself to the Eighteenth Amendment, and the issue was made as clear as the English language and two personalities could make it in the state. We do not see how those who believe in prohibition and the enforcement of the law can deny the claims that the candidacy of Milton K. Young has upon them.

We do not for a moment criticize those who do not believe in the Constitution and prohibition, for their support of Mr. Rolph as the exponent of the principles which they hold. They are logical and consistent. Neither are we unmindful of the excuses offered by those who for partisan or other reasons desire to support Mr. Rolph and still claim to be for prohibition. The main one of these excuses is so silly in the light of political facts that it hardly seems that intelligent people would advance it. This is the suggestion that Mr. Young has supported, among his party candidates for office, "wet" men, such as Al Smith. If the support of a "wet" candidate on his party ticket sometime or other in the life of a man running for public office, makes him unavailable himself as a candidate for prohibition people, then there would be few, if any, candidates anywhere. Note the outstanding example at this moment in the state of California. Mr. Rolph is as "wet" as Al Smith ever was, and yet we have Senator Frank Merriam, candidate for lieutenant governor, spending most of his time in public addresses lauding Mr. Rolph and endeavoring to gain votes for him. By the same reason that Mr. Young should not have our support because he had in turn supported "wet" candidates, we should be against Mr. Merriam because he, at this very moment, is supporting a "wet" candidate.

We do not believe that any such limitation is right or fair. We feel that Mr. Merriam has a right to vote for whom he pleases as long as in his position as a citizen and an officer, he supports the "dry" cause. We believe Mr. Young has that same right. We would like to see both of them at all times support only "dry" candidates, and we believe the day will come when the line-up will be pretty near that exacting, but it is not here now and the attempt to apply it to a candidate on one party ticket and not to a candidate on another party ticket shows either mendacity or hypocrisy.

The finest thing that Republican voters in California can do this fall is to serve notice on the party politicians, by voting for Mr. Young, that candidates espousing the "wet" cause will not receive the support of California citizens on any party ticket. This is the most certain way to insure that they will not take up with such conditions in the future. The politicians will then support the other kind for the one reason that appeals to that class, namely, to "win." When this lesson has been taught we have made real advance. This year presents a fine opportunity to teach this lesson.

GENERAL WEYLER

It hardly seems that General Valeriano Weyler, whose administration in Cuba was one of the chief contributing causes of the Spanish war, should pass without some editorial notice. His funeral was yesterday, forty people attended. This is not a direct reflection upon his popularity as he requested private services. General Weyler was ninety-two years of age.

At the time we were precipitated into the Spanish war, General Weyler's name was on everyone's lips and he was execrated from one end of this land to the other. We would like to be able to say, now that he has gone, that he was slandered and misjudged, but unfortunately the facts remain and we cannot do it. He was known as "Weyler, the Butcher," and in the light of the facts through a vista of years and seen by the eyes of history, he was cruel and inhuman. His order for the concentration of the populace into camps to prevent rebellion and trouble otherwise, in view of the impossibility of properly taking care of them, was equal to simply lining them up before a firing squad. They died in great numbers from the insanitary conditions and from starvation. In fact, it would have been more humane to have killed them outright.

It may be urged that General Weyler did what he did under orders, but there was always room for his resignation and if he had not been willing to have done this work he would not have succeeded Marshal Campos whose conduct was too mild for the Spanish administration. In the entire history of our own wars there has never been serious charge of undue cruelty with the exception of General Sherman's march of devastation "from Atlanta to the sea," and in that case it was because of destruction of property that he was so charged and not for his treatment of the individual. It did shorten the period of resistance and that really helped in the final results. But two hundred thousand Cubans were reported to have died of starvation in that concentration period ordered by General Weyler.

General Weyler had the reputation of being an able general. He was undoubtedly a physically brave man. He was loyal to the government of Spain. He was loaded with honors during his lifetime, but his character would never have won for him honor or position in this country. He dies unlamented by the people of the Western Hemisphere.

CHICKENS COME HOME

It was a strange irony of fate that Mayor Thompson, of Chicago, should become the victim of the outlaws for which his connivance or indifference is so much responsible. The robbery of his wife, returning from a party, and the loss of her jewels has given the mayor something to think about. He must know how it feels to be the victim of misgovernment. We can look on when some one else is being slugged or robbed, but when it comes so near home, as it has to Mayor Thompson, it looks very much different.

We are not surprised, therefore, that the mayor has prodded up his commissioner of police to find the thugs. He has let it be known that if they are not caught he will ask the reason why. With a wife nervously prostrated by the rough handling and the scare, the mayor has been given a very impressive object lesson as to what it means to have a laxness in the enforcement of law against thugs and racketeers. It is to be hoped that some good will come out of it all, both for the mayor and the city which has received so much unfavorable notoriety through the country and over the world.

'Out of the Depths—'

Our clients will kindly pardon the natural embarrassment with which we announce the discovery—19 days late—that the month of October has been designated as National Doughnut Month. We do not know—and had almost said "we doughnut know"—who designated it, nor by what rituals, incantations or ceremonies the designation was accomplished. We cannot say what penalties would be entailed by failure to observe the month as designated. We are not even entirely sure as to exactly what observances were contemplated by the designers. But October has been designated as National Doughnut Month.

One item of the official announcement from New York City arouses, however, an apprehension which we trust the proprietors of this month will not regard as ill-timed.

"Bakers will feature doughnuts," the announcement says, "sugared, chocolate-covered, vanilla-coated and decorated doughnuts which put this delicacy in the pastry class."

Now this is a threat which we find abhorrent, revolting and practically Communistic. Our loyalty to the doughnut has never been questioned, either privately or officially, and it is founded upon affection and respect carefully nurtured over many years of close co-operation with an excellent digestion. And we say, solemnly and advisedly—in inviting the dignitaries of National Doughnut Month to take legal recourse if they will—that a decorated doughnut is a disgusting and unnatural object, and an outrage to the finer feelings of every righteous man.

We invite the bakers of this community to deluge us with doughnuts, for ritualistic purposes appropriate to the month, but common decency demands the warning that chocolate-covered doughnuts will not be acceptable. In the words of the late Queen Victoria, we are not amused.

Beauty of Hymns

Unimpressive and hard of heart indeed is he who does not respond with profound feeling upon hearing the grand old hymns which have waited the souls of uncounted millions toward heaven. There is that in the singing of those sacred old numbers which grips the very soul and transports it beyond the low, groveling, material things of this life. Let the children in the home hear hymns frequently—on phonograph records, by radio, or otherwise. It exerts a wholesome influence. The boy or girl that learns to love and reverence the old hymns will have a heritage in life that will enrich and happily existence.

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

IF AT FIRST THEY DON'T SUCCEED—

When a rascal lacks the nerve to be a gunman,
And to prey upon the timid passer-by,
When disturbing fears assail him,
That the sleuths may catch and jail him.
He does not bid his hope of wealth good-bye.
He keeps a watchful eye upon the future,
And waits the chance to better his condition,
And by and by we find him
With a hungry horde behind him
While he functions as a grafting politician.

When a blackleg doesn't dare to be a burglar,
Or to pick up pins and watches on the street,
When he suffers inward terror
Lest this outlawed form of error
Might attract the large policeman on the beat,
When he's wanting in the snew and the daring
That are needful to the yeggman and garroter,
He finds a means more clever
For his criminal endeavor,
And becomes at last a crooked stock promoter.

The copy books inform us that persistence
Must always prove successful in the end,
And that those who keep on striving
Will be certain of arriving
At a mountain they can readily ascend.
These maxims were intended for the righteous
Who of noble destinations are pursuers,
But we find, unfortunately,
They are too much followed lately
By the too successful guild of evildoers.

ONE IS ENOUGH

Herr Hitler, of Germany is hailed as another Mussolini. But there can't be two of that kind.

SUGGESTION

Maybe if the policeman can't get the gunman any other way they can convict them of violating the unnecessary noise ordinance.

TOO PERILOUS

Lincoln Steffens says that people ought to cut out the bunk. But that is an operation very few people could survive.

TRIED AND TRUE

Capital and Labor Agree

Yesterday we quoted the addresses of leading bankers at their recent annual convention. These men urge the people to save more, buy less, consume less. In other words, go down to lower standard of living.

There are many bankers who are doing their best to cut down consumer buying, at the very time when business is 17 per cent below normal because consumers are not buying enough.

If there is anything that will put another million jobless men into the bread lines this winter, it is decreased buying on the part of those who are able to buy. Yet many bankers advocate precisely that. They urge people to save more right now. That means spending less. That means forcing employers to discharge more men.

Organized labor, on the same day, also advocated reduced production as the way out of our present troubles.

The metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor, at its Boston convention, unanimously resolved in favor of a five-day week and a five-hour day.

We cannot assume that the metal workers favor shorter hours for themselves and longer hours for everybody else. But if EVERYBODY adopted a 25-hour week, the immediate result would be a huge slump in output. That would necessitate a huge slump in our standard of living. That would be the result even if all the unemployed got jobs.

It is true that the present business depression is caused by overproduction. It is caused, in other words, by underconsumption.

One way out is to cut down production. That is, in effect, what these bankers and these labor leaders advocate. That means a lower standard of living.

The other way is to increase consumption. That means a higher standard of living.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

OUR WEALTH AND OUR SCHOOLS

Yesterday I reported from a research bulletin of the National Educational association certain basic facts about the relation of our annual school expenditure to our annual national income.

Today I want to report from the same source certain basic facts about the relation of our total national wealth to our total investment in school property.

The figures of today, like the figures I gave yesterday, are based upon the year 1928, the last year for which full and accurate figures are available.

In 1928, the total wealth of the United States was estimated at $353,520,000,000.

In the same year, the total value of the property of all public schools, elementary, secondary and higher, was $6,333,838,538.

Reduced to more readily understandable terms this means:

Out of every $100 of the nation's wealth, $1.79 is invested in the property of public schools of all kinds.

This $1.79 of every $100 of the nation's wealth is divided as follows:

Out of every $100 of the nation's wealth, $1.55 is invested in the property of elementary and secondary schools that are tax supported.

Out of every $100 of the nation's wealth, 24 cents is invested in the property of colleges and universities that are tax supported.

This hardly seems an extravagant investment in the training of human capacity and skill.

We have been spending annually on things other than education amounts that help to give us a better perspective on our expenditure for education.

Passenger automobiles...$12,500,000,000
Building construction...7,065,000,000
Certain luxuries...6,401,850,000
Life insurance...3,145,844,000
Public education...2,448,633,551

We are not such wastrels in education!

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

LESS THAN PERFECT

Katherine handed her mother a sheaf of paper and stood by with a worry wrinkle in her brow. Mother looked at the papers and bit her lip. Then she said, and there was complaint and censure in her voice, "But why didn't you get a perfect mark? Surely it is as easy to get five examples right as four; it is just as easy to learn twenty words as it is to learn nineteen."

"I have the highest marks in class, mother."

"Well, that's something. But never be satisfied until you get a hundred. There, there, I suppose you did the best you could but when a child can get so close to perfect it is hard to see why she does not make the little effort necessary."

That is the best way known to parents and teachers to make a child lose all interest in school work, to make him hate school and all its work. Whoever got perfect marks anywhere anytime? Not even this mother who brused her child's spirit because she came so near perfection and failed.

It is so easy to see the defect. So easy to say, "Why isn't it perfect? Try it on yourself. Go to some school or teacher and take up a new subject and see how close to perfection you can attain. The child you scolded will beat you to pieces. He gets far closer to perfection in any new study than you can get. Still neither of you can be perfect."

An occasional hundred per cent is due any child. Few children can get it many times in succession if the work is adjusted to his powers. A good lesson makes a child stretch just enough for growth. If it is so easy that he gets a perfect mark time after time he is not making the proper growth. If it is too difficult for him to get a good mark after a certain time it is poorly adjusted to him and he is making no growth. But always his mark should indicate him a little less than perfect.

The same thing holds good in behavior. The child who never gives his mother a moment's trouble isn't likely to give her anything else either. A lively growing child makes mistakes and many of them. He gets into trouble because he is experimenting in order to discover what life holds for him. He is troublesome because of his deep interest in living. The child who is so good that nobody ever found fault with him has no deep interests, is not experimenting, and won't be a very positive soul. Only the positive, eager, interested children arrive.

Please, then, be good enough to accept the children as a little less than perfect. I assure you they are much better that way. Follow the plan of the famous teacher of the Vineland Training School, Edward Thorndike. When a very, very dull child showed him a spelling list with one word right and the nineteen wrong he smiled his tender warning smile patted the bowed head and said, "Well, well, isn't that fine. ONE right. By tomorrow there'll be another one to keep it company. Good boy."

Give thanks and praise for whatever success the child achieves and so assure its increase.

BERNHARDT'S BIRTH

On Oct. 23, 1845, Sarah Bernhardt, great French tragic actress, was born at Paris. Her parents were Jewish, but she was educated at a convent.

She made her first appearance on the stage in 1862, but attracted little attention. Three years later, however, she became an overnight favorite by her playing of the part of the queen in Victor Hugo's Ruy Blas. The Franco-Prussian war interrupted her career, and for a while she became a nurse.

In 1879 she had a famous season in London. By this time her reputation as the greatest actress of her day was securely established. She then toured with great success all the principal countries of Europe and North and South America. In January, 1914, the Legion of Honor was conferred upon her. During the World war she played at the front despite the fact she could no longer walk or stand unaided, an accident having led to the amputation of a leg.

Endowed with a matchless voice," as one critic wrote, she had a "remarkable gift of artistic poise and movement." She was also a painter and sculptor and wrote two plays in addition to a volume of memoirs.

Time To Smile

WHEN LAST SEEN—

FOOTPAD—(in lonely lane): Wot time is it, guv'nor?
MILD GENTLEMAN (producing gold watch): Hh-ah! p-past ten.
FOOTPAD: I'll never remember that. Lend us yer watch.—The Humorist.

THE ROBBER

JONES (meeting girl friend on beach): Just a word of warning. There's a hotel thief around here.
GIRL FRIEND: Too late, old man. I'm staying at the hotel he runs.—The Humorist.

HIS ONLY CHANCE

FRIEND: Congratulations! I hear that you've already got a case to defend.
BUDDING YOUNG LAWYER: Yes, it's my tailor who has summoned me.—Passing Show.

HIS ONLY CHANCE

TOMMY: Pa, why was Adam created first?
FATHER: To give him a chance to say something.—Answers.
